

ORDINARY OF THE DAILY OFFICE

THE ORDER OF MATINS AND EVENSONG

THE OPENING SENTENCE.

¶ The Officiant may begin the Office by reading, without note, a suitable Sentence of Holy Scripture, such as may be found in Appendix I (p. 256). After the Sentence, he may proceed at once to O Lord, open thou our lips. Or, especially on days of Fasting or Abstinence, he may proceed with The Exhortation, General Confession and Absolution, followed by the Opening Versicles.

THE EXHORTATION, GENERAL CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION.

¶ Then the Officiant shall say, without note,

DEARLY beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us, in sundry places, to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness ; and that we should not dissemble nor cloak them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father ; but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart ; to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought, at all times, humbly to acknowledge our sins before God ; yet ought we chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy Word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well as for the body as for the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart, and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying -

¶ Or, he shall say,

LET us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.

¶ To be said without note by the Officiant bowing and Congregation kneeling (a layman Officiant kneels).

ALMIGHTY and most merciful Father ; We have erred, and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done ; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done ; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore thou those who are penitent ; According to thy promises declared unto mankind In Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake ; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ Here follows the Absolution, pronounced by the Priest alone, in the normal reading voice, standing; the People still kneeling.

ALMIGHTY God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live, hath given power, and commandment, to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the Absolution and Remission of all their sins. He pardoneth and absolveth ✠ all those who truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel.

Wherefore, let us beseech him to grant us true repentence, and his Holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present; and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy ; so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
