

Psalm 14 (13) Dixit insipiens in corde suo Tone VII 4

THE fool hath · said in his heart, * · There is no God.

2 They are corrupt and become abominable · in their doings; * there is none that doeth · good no not one.

3 The LORD look-ed down from heaven upon the · children of men * to see if there were any that would understand and · seek after God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become a-bominable; * there is none that doeth · good no not one.

5 Have they no knowledge that they are all such · workers of mischief, * eating up my people as it were bread and call · not upon the LORD? [For additional verses, see Appendix I, page 218]

9 There were they brought in great fear even · where no fear was; * for God is in the generation · of the righteous.

10 As for you ye have made a mock at the · counsel of the poor; * because he putteth his · trust in the LORD.

11 Who shall give salvation unto Israel · out of Sion? * When the LORD turneth the captivity of his people then shall Jacob rejoice and · Israel shall be glad.

12 Glory be to the · Father and to the Son * and · to the Holy Ghost;

13 As it was in the beginning, † is now and · ever shall be, * · world without end. Amen.

THE THIRD DAY.

Psalm 15 (14) Domine, quis habitabit? Tone III A 5
