The Plainsong Psalter

Edited by James Litton

The Church Hymnal Corporation
800 Second Avenue, New York, New York 10017

To the memory of The Rev. Dr. Norman Mealy, who through his love of the Church's music
and his many years of setting preliminary and final texts of The Book of Common Prayer
to traditional unison chant, has provided Christians a wealth of liturgical song so that they may enlarge their daily round of prayer and praise.

Preface

The Standing Commission on Church Music of the Episcopal Church has requested that the collection of plainsong Gradual Psalms which was prepared by Richard Crocker and Ronald Haizlip be expanded to include the entire Psalter of The Book of Common Prayer. In addition, the Commission has directed that the antiphons which were selected and compiled by Howard E. Galley, Jr. and published in The Psalter section of his The Prayer Book Office (The Seabury Press, New York, 1980) be included with each psalm. The inclusion of these antiphons set to traditional office antiphon plainsong melodies makes this plainsong psalter unique. As far as it can be determined this is the first complete English plainsong psalter which has been published with antiphons for each psalm. The singing of antiphons with the psalms restores the complete musical form of the psalm tones. Divorced from the antiphons these plainsong tones are but a musical fragment.

In setting the antiphons I have followed the work of Dr. Crocker in his edition of Gradual Psalms with little or no change, and when an antiphon text is not included in Gradual Psalms I have tried to follow the spirit of Dr. Crocker's adaptations of the plainsong antiphon melodies.

Following the request of the Standing Commission on Church Music I have also tried to follow Dr. Crocker's choice of psalm tones as well as his method of pointing the psalm texts. Where this has not been possible, many plainsong psalters have been consulted, from Helmore's A Manual of Plainsong, 1850 to Willan's The Canadian Psalter, 1963.

Because of the revised translation of the psalms in The Book of Common Prayer the choice of tones and the pointed text of earlier psalters have been considered a guide and a starting point. The final choice of tones and the pointing of the psalm verses have been determined by either the unchanged decisions and solutions by Dr. Crocker and Mr. Haizlip, by a revision of the same, or finally, by original work. In all cases decisions were made after weekly singing of the Gradual Psalms with students, choirs, cantors and congregations over a decade of regular services in various churches and during many workshops throughout America and in England.

The section of Performance Notes which concerns antiphons is essentially the work of Howard E. Galley, Jr., and is taken from the Introduction to his monumental The Prayer Book Office. This information is included with the generous permission of Mr. Galley. Other parts of Performance Notes in this psalter are a revision of sections of Performance Notes prepared by the SCCM in The Hymnal 1982.

It would be impossible to adequately express appreciation to all who have helped in the preparation of this edition of the Plainsong Psalter. The many members and consultants of the Standing Commission on Church Music during the past eighteen years have generously contributed time and talent so that all of us can sing liturgical songs and hymns with "spirit and understanding."

In addition to those mentioned above who have provided practical experience in singing the psalms, deepest appreciation must be expressed to many friends and colleagues who have helped in countless ways to make this psalter possible. First of all I am grateful to Elizabeth Downie, the current Chair of the SCCM (1988) for her keen interest, support, patience and thorough knowledge of liturgical song. I am also grateful to her for her contribution to the Performance Notes in The Hymnal 1982.

During the many years that I had the honor of serving on various committees and subcommittees of the Standing Commission on Church Music and the Standing Liturgical Commission which dealt with liturgical song, liturgical texts, and especially the psalms, I learned a great deal from the scholars, clergy and musicians who served with distinction on those committees. Canon Charles Mortimer Guilbert, Dr. Alec Wyton, Dr. Marion Hatchett, Dr. Raymond Glover, The Rev. Sherrod Albritton, Mr. Mason Martens and the late Rev. Leo Malania have all served on these many committees during the past fifteen years and have provided instruction, inspiration and helpful advice. During my last several years at Trinity Church in Princeton the late Dr. Erik Routley often was among those in the congregation who sang psalms. His delight in the opportunity to join the singing and his many helpful suggestions after each service will long be remembered with gratitude.

Much work on pointing the psalms for this psalter was accomplished during summer teaching sessions at The University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee and at the Royal School of Church Music in England. I am grateful to these institutions for the use of their libraries and the cheerful assistance provided by the library staff of both institutions during the many hours of research and study. I am especially grateful to Dr. Lionel Dakers, the Director of the Royal School of Church Music for access to that institution's extensive collection of nineteenth and early twentieth century psalters.

Frank Hemlin and the entire staff of The Church Hymnal Corporation have provided detailed and able assistance in the preparation of all parts of this edition. Most of all I must thank them for their patience when the demands on the time of a practical musician and teacher strained proofreading and publication deadlines.

Shirley Hill was always available to type manuscripts—even at the last minute, and I also deeply appreciate her able help in checking final details of the pointing of the psalms.

I would be remiss not to have mentioned Dr. Allan Wicks, who awakened my interest in the singing of psalms during the daily round of Matins and Evensong week after week and month by month so many years ago in Canterbury Cathedral.

Finally, I must not neglect to express deepest thanks to my wife and family who suffered through many a late night of the drone of plainsong psalms drifting through our home from my study corner as I sought a solution to a particularly difficult pointing problem. I am especially appreciative for those moments when they joined in the psalm singing and helped solve many of those pointing problems.

Introduction

Singing Psalms in Christian Worship

An important aspect of liturgical renewal has been the increased use of psalmody in our worship. The Psalter is the “liturgical hymnal of the people of God, of the Old Covenant first, but also of the New Covenant—the Christian Church.”¹ It “has been shaped and molded, and its interpretation enriched, by long liturgical use, in temple, synagogue, and church, so that it emerges as a body of praise and prayer suited to the varying but recurrent needs and aspirations of the worshipping community.”²

The Psalter, an anthology of religious verse, was the hymn book of the Second Temple, collected and edited to meet the liturgical requirements of the Temple liturgy.

In the oldest form of the daily offices the psalms were selected according to the time of day and/or the season of the liturgical year as they were used in temple and synagogue worship. In later monastic communities the entire psalter was sung within a specific period of time—daily, weekly, or fortnightly. In the 1549 Book of Common Prayer, Cranmer assigned the psalms to a monthly recitation with proper psalms for Christmas, Easter, Ascension, and Whitsunday. Later revisions of the prayer book added additional proper seasonal psalms.

In the 1979 Book of Common Prayer the Psalter is given a seven week pattern of recitation in the daily offices except for the weeks before and after Christmas Day, for Holy Week and for the week following Easter Day. Special attention has been given to include appropriate psalms for the time of day, the day of the week, and the season of the liturgical year. Alternatively, the prayer book also provides for the traditional anglican cycle of monthly recitation of the psalms.

Psalms have been sung in the Eucharist since at least the fourth century—during the Entrance Rite, as an introit; following readings; at the Offertory, and during the Communion. The normal practice in the Eucharist has been to sing psalms responsorially as opposed to the antiphonal or direct psalmody in the daily offices. An appropriate selection of psalms or selected verses of psalms from The Plainsong Psalter used in conjunction with the Gradual Psalms (Church Hymnal Corporation) provides a complete proper Eucharistic psalmody—Introit, Gradual, Offertory, and Communion.

The psalter, included in every prayer book of the Anglican Communion from 1549 to 1928 was based on the translation by Miles Coverdale for the Great Bible of 1539–1541. Coverdale translated the psalms in 1535. His translation was not based on the original Hebrew but upon the Latin translation of the Greek translation from the Hebrew. “The psalter of the Great Bible was, in other words, a translation from a Latin translation of a Greek translation of a Hebrew original.”³ In addition, Coverdale had reference to Luther’s German translation of 1524, an English translation by Tyndale of a 1528 Latin translation of the Old Testament, and the Zürich Bible of 1529.

The current Prayer Book Psalter is in the “spirit of Coverdale” and is a more complete revision of that begun in the 1928 American prayer book. Although the vocabulary has been restricted to that used by Coverdale, this translation is the result of a more detailed “re-examination of the Hebrew text in the light of recent scholarship.”⁴ “Obsolete and archaic words have been removed and inaccurate renderings emended, but the rhythmic expression which characterized Coverdale’s work has been carefully preserved.”⁵

For a complete history and description of the liturgical psalter and of the 1979 Prayer Book translation, one is urged to study the introduction by Charles Mortimer Guilbert to The Psalter—A New Version for Public Worship and Private Devotion. (The Seabury Press—New York, 1978)

The plainsong psalm tones are among the oldest music of the Christian Church and certain forms of some can be traced to the liturgical music of the synagogue. The Latin translation of the psalms has been sung to these tones from earliest centuries of the Christian Church. Following the publication of the 1549 Book of Common Prayer very little plainsong survived in the English liturgy with the exception of remnants of liturgical song used by Merbecke in The Book of Common Prayer Noted (1550). In addition, the eight psalm tones continued to be sung in some form with the English prayer book psalter well into the eighteenth century. In some places the psalm tones were sung in harmonized versions, and these four-part settings became the basis of Anglican Chant. As Anglican Chant developed and came to be accepted as the norm for singing the psalms, especially in cathedrals, the Chapel Royal and collegiate chapels, the psalm tones came to be rarely used until revived in the mid-nineteenth century.

During the 1840s there were several attempts to revive the practice of singing the psalms in English to the eight traditional psalm tones, but it was Thomas Helmore who provided the first influential and widely used English plainsong psalter, The Psalter Noted of 1849. This was followed by The Canticles Noted. After 1850 both collections were published together as A Manual of Plainsong.

Helmore's edition was the result of many years of singing the plainsong psalms in the daily offices at St. Mark's College, Chelsea in London. Even though A Manual of Plainsong became the definitive English psalter for over fifty years, many other plainsong psalters appeared during the last three decades of the nineteenth century and well into the early twentieth century. The revival of singing the psalms to the psalm tones, however, took place mainly in parish churches while cathedrals and collegiate chapels held on to the practice of singing the psalms with Anglican chant.

A Manual of Plainsong was revised and re-edited by H.B. Briggs and W.H. Frere in 1902 and has continued to be used throughout this century. In North America this edition influenced both Canon Charles Winfred Douglas' The Plainsong Psalter, 1932 and Healey Willan's edition of The Canadian Psalter—Plainsong Edition, 1963. For a complete study of the revival of singing the psalms to the psalm tones, readers are referred to The Choral Revival in the Anglican Church by Barnarr Rainbow, London 1970 and The Hymnal 1982 Companion.

Concerning the Psalter

The Psalter is a body of liturgical poetry. It is designed for vocal, congregational use, whether by singing or reading. There are several traditional methods of psalmody. The exclusive use of a single method makes the recitation of the Psalter needlessly monotonous. The traditional methods, each of which can be elaborate or simple, are the following:

Direct recitation denotes the singing or reading of a whole psalm, or portion of a psalm, sung or read together by the entire congregation. It is particularly appropriate for the psalm verses suggested in the lectionary for use between the Lessons at the Eucharist, when the verses are recited rather than sung, and may often be found a satisfactory method of chanting them.

Antiphonal singing or recitation is the verse-by-verse alternation between groups of singers or readers; e.g., between choir and congregation, or between one side of the congregation and the other. The alternate recitation concludes with the Gloria Patri, or with a refrain (called the antiphon) sung or recited by all. This is probably the most satisfying method for singing or reciting the psalms in the Daily Office.

Responsorial singing or recitation is the name given to a method of psalmody in which the verses of a psalm are sung by a solo voice, with the choir and the congregation singing a refrain or antiphon after each verse or group of verses. This was the traditional method of singing the Venite and other Invitatory Psalms. The restoration of Invitatory Antiphons for the Venite and Jubilate Deo makes possible a recovery of this form of sacred song in the Daily Office. It was also a traditional manner of chanting the psalms between the Lessons at the Eucharist (especially after the Old Testament Reading.) It is a method of psalmody increasingly favored by modern composers.

The version of the Psalms which follows is set out in lines of Poetry. The lines correspond to Hebrew versification, which is not based on meter or rhyme, but on parallelism of clauses, a symmetry of form and sense. The parallelism can take the form of similarity (The waters have lifted up, O Lord/the waters have lifted up their voice;/the waters have lifted up their pounding waves. Psalms 93:4), or of contrast (The Lord knows the ways of the righteous;/but the way of the wicked is doomed. Psalms 1:6) or of logical expansion (Our eyes look to the Lord our God,/until he show us his mercy. Psalms 123:3).

The most common verse is a couplet, but triplets are very frequent, and quatrains are not unknown; although quatrains are usually distributed over two verses. An asterisk divides each verse into two parts for singing or reading. A distinct pause should be made at the asterisk.

Three terms are used in the Psalms with the reference to God: Elohim ("God"), Adonai ("Lord") and the personal name YHWH. The "Four-letter Name" (Tetragrammaton) is probably to be vocalized Yahweh; but this is by no means certain, because from very ancient times it has been considered too sacred to be pronounced; and, whenever it occurred, Adonai was substituted for it. In the oldest manuscripts, the Divine Name was written in antique and obsolete letters; in more recent manuscripts and in printed Bibles, after the invention of vowel points, the Name was provided with the vowels of the word Adonai. This produced a hybrid form which has been translated "Jehovah."

The Hebrew reverence and reticence with regard to the Name of God has been carried over into the classical English versions, the Prayer Book Psalter and the King James Old Testament, where it is regularly rendered "Lord." In order to distinguish it, however, from "Lord" as a translation of Adonai, YHWH is represented in capital and small capital letters: LORD.

From time to time, the Hebrew text has Adonai and YHWH in conjunction. Then, the Hebrew custom is to substitute Elohim for YHWH, and our English tradition follows suit, rendering the combined title as “Lord God.”

In two passages (Psalm 68:4 and Psalm 83:18) the context requires that the Divine Name be spelled out, and it appears as YAHWEH. A similar construction occurs in the Canticle, “The Song of Moses.”

The ancient praise-shout, “Hallelujah,” has been restored, in place of its English equivalent, “Praise the Lord.” The Hebrew form has been used, rather than the Latin form “Alleluia,” as being more appropriate to this context; but also to regain for our liturgy a form of the word that is familiar from its use in many well-known anthems. The word may, if desired, be omitted during the season of Lent.

Performance Notes

Singing the Chant

Good chanting is good singing. Chant is a musical medium for the clear and expressive singing of the psalms. Word accents create the rhythm in chant, and the lines and verses of the text determine the shape of the chant's musical phrase. Single-line melodic chant (Plainsong) should be sung as song, whether lyrical or declamatory, as the words require.

When singing plainsong, special attention must be paid to the words sung to the reciting note. The recitation must not be rushed and is governed by the rhythm and flow of the words. Mediant cadences (the musical change at mid-point) and final endings or cadences should never slow down or speed up. This results in a false metrical emphasis which distorts the natural word accents and rhythm of the phrase. The established and recurring tempo of the recitation remains the same throughout the psalm tone, including the intonation, reciting notes, the mediant and final cadences. On the other hand, the text is not to be sung with a mechanical, unbending pulse. Certain words will be gently moved along; others will be slightly stressed or prolonged. Care is to be taken, however, not to sing the text with unnatural dotted rhythms.

Unaccented words or syllables at the beginning of lines should be treated in an anacrusic manner, moving directly to the first primary accent in the line. In general, accents should be created by lengthening the word or syllable (agogic accent) rather than by a sudden dynamic stress. Tempo and dynamics are to be determined by the meaning of the text, the number of singers, and the size and resonance of the space where the psalms are being sung.

If singers read the text in an expressive but not exaggerated manner, and then sing the words to the chant with the same rhythmic flow, they will discover how plainsong can unify the Christian community's singing of the psalms.

Notation

Plainsong is essentially melody heightening a text. The notation used in this book is intended to facilitate congregational participation.

Some notational symbols are peculiar to chant:

1. Noteheads without stems indicate pitch; the word accent determines duration, the white or open noteheads used at the ends of phrases (and occasionally elsewhere) are longer, approximately twice the length of black noteheads.
2. A lozenge or rectangular note symbol indicates a reciting note. The number of words and syllables and the natural word rhythm in the recitation determines its duration.
3. Notes slurred together indicate one syllable sung to two or more notes:

Al - le - lu - ia,

or:

...for - ev - er.

Psalm Tones

A Psalm Tone has five parts, as shown in this example:

Tone VI

The Intonation is sung to the first two syllables or first two single syllable words of the first verse of the psalm following the antiphon. It is indicated in the text by italics. Successive verses of the psalm begin on the first reciting note unless the antiphon is sung after certain verses in the course of the psalm. The intonation is always sung to the first two syllables of a verse following the singing of the antiphon.

The First Reciting Note is used for all words and syllables of the first half of the psalm verse which are not sung to the intonation or to the mediant cadence.

The Mediant Cadence is sung before the asterisk in the psalm text, and consists of one or two accented syllables and one, two or three preparatory syllables. Accent marks in the psalm text (◌◌) correspond to accent marks under the notes in the psalm tone (◌◌). The notes in parenthesis are used only when needed. Preparatory syllables follow the diagonal bar (/) in the text; they are sung to the notes following the diagonal bar under the notes of the psalm tone.

In a few cases, the first half of the verse ends with an accented syllable. In many cases this should be sung to the final accented note in the first half of the psalm tone, omitting the note in parenthesis and the last note of the mediant cadence. (When this happens, it is considered an abrupt mediation.)

In some psalm tones, two (and in some cases, three or four) notes are slurred together. These should never be divided between two syllables. Words or syllables requiring two or more notes are indicated by dots over the syllables in the pointed text [e.g., set upón your thrōne (for Psalm Tone Id)].

The Second Reciting Note is used like the first, and the Final Cadence is used like the Mediant Cadence. The remainder of the psalm verse following the asterisk is sung to the Second Reciting Note and to the Final Cadence or Ending.

In a few cases in some psalms, due to the shortness of the half verse, the Intonation or the Reciting Note is omitted. This is indicated in the pointed text by the use of a dash (—) (e.g., O Lord—God of hosts).

In some cases, it has not been possible to align the real accents of the English texts with the accented notes of the Psalm Tone. The accent mark over the syllable in the pointed psalm text always indicates that such a syllable is sung to the accented note of the Psalm Tone.

Antiphons

In accordance with the rubrical suggestions on pages 141 and 935 of The Book of Common Prayer, the Plainsong Psalter provides general and seasonal antiphons for use with each psalm. Only one antiphon is used with a given psalm on any particular occasion. During the “green seasons” of the year, and at other times when antiphons of “ordinary time” are appointed, the reference is to the antiphon indicated “on other Sundays and Weekdays” or “Antiphon” provided for each psalm.

The usual practice is to have the entire appointed antiphon sung before the first verse of the psalm. The verses of the psalm are then sung full, by all, or antiphonally—verse by verse, from side to side, between women’s and men’s voices or between congregation and choir (or cantors). The psalm verses may also be sung by cantor, cantors or choir. The antiphon is repeated by all at the end of the psalm or after the Gloria Patri, when it is used. The antiphon is never sung both after the last verse of the psalm and also after the Gloria Patri. There are times when it may be desirable to sing a psalm responsorially, as at the Gradual in the Eucharist: the verses being sung by a cantor or a small group, and the antiphon sung by the congregation after each group of verses.

The antiphons should be sung in a natural, flowing manner, without strong accents or change of pace. They can be sung faster or slower, somewhat louder or softer in accordance with the text, the season, or the occasion. Many antiphons can be sung as one phrase without stopping for a breath. Others have a natural division, marked in the music by a quarter, half or whole bar, where a breath may be taken. Antiphons should be sung immediately after the psalm verses without hesitation.

Choosing a comfortable pitch for cantors, choir and congregation is very important. In the Plainsong Psalter antiphons and psalm tones often have been transposed into a comfortable range, but, in some situations, additional transposition might be necessary.

Antiphon Texts

Ordinarily the text of the antiphon is taken from a verse of the psalm, and serves to underscore the basic theme of the psalm or the reason it has been chosen for the particular occasion. Some historic antiphons, however, are taken from other parts of Scripture. Those for the season of Advent, for example, are frequently taken from the writings of the Prophets. Still other classic antiphons are non-scriptural. To have rejected these would have been a considerable impoverishment, since the majority of them draw upon recognizable biblical imagery and are frequently of great beauty. In choosing antiphons of this kind from the ancient repertory, care has been taken to see that they conform to the Prayer Book requirement for “anthems,” namely, that they are congruent with the teaching of Holy Scripture.

On some occasions the first verse or first line of a psalm is used as the antiphon. In such cases (see, for example, Psalm 81) the text of the antiphon is followed by the symbol (†). This serves to indicate that the singing of the psalm is to begin, not at the first verse, but at the point indicated by the corresponding symbol (†) in the left margin.

Antiphons in Easter Season

In keeping with ancient western tradition, alleluiatic antiphons are appointed for the psalms during the fifty days of Easter. In some instances, this is simply the antiphon used at other times with Hallelujah added. More frequently, a proper antiphon is provided. The only exceptions are a few psalms whose nature is such that the use of Hallelujah would be incongruous.

Music for the Antiphons

Proper plainsong antiphon melodies, especially the ancient graduals, are usually extremely ornate, and unsuitable for typical modern parish use. In searching for a practical congregational psalmody, the simpler, less elaborate plainsong melodies provide an answer to the quest for easily learned liturgical song. Such melodies have been preserved from ancient times, mainly in music for the offices (Matins, Lauds, Vespers, etc.) and not for the Holy Eucharist, and in the style of antiphonal psalmody, not responsorial psalmody. The antiphon melodies used in the Plainsong Psalter are, therefore, most appropriately sung with the psalmody in the daily offices, but they may also be used to enlarge the repertory of Gradual Psalms in the Holy Eucharist.

The daily office antiphon melodies represent one of the most ancient traditions of Christian musical experience in a compact and accessible form. This repertory of office antiphons (dating from the period circa A.D. 400–700), which is used as the source of the antiphons in the Plainsong Psalter, consists of melodies that are used again and again throughout the Latin offices and for many different texts. This fact indicates that these melodies are a broad and deep foundation of Christian song. These priceless jewels of pure melody, many so short as to be sung in a single breath, are easily adaptable for modern English liturgical translations.

Possible Accompaniments

Traditionally plainsong has been sung without accompaniment, and in a favorable acoustical environment, such singing is very beautiful and is to be encouraged. When an instrumental accompaniment is felt to be necessary, the simplest keyboard solution is to play the plainsong melody in octaves. This is also an effective way to teach antiphons to a congregation.

Bell ringing is an excellent support for singing plainsong. Handbells may be used in various ways to accompany the singing of psalms:

1. Cluster chords may be rung at the mediant and/or final cadences of each psalm verse.
2. An ostinato pattern may be rung throughout the singing of the antiphon and/or verses of the psalm. The pattern should be rung freely, making no attempt to synchronize with special points in the antiphon melody or psalm tone.
3. Bells may be rung at random during the singing, creating a spontaneous accompaniment. Ringers must be sensitive to the overall sound; the bell sonorities should not dominate. Intervals of the fourth, fifth, octave, and major second provide the most satisfactory bell accompaniments for plainsong psalms.

The pitch and tempo of the antiphon and psalm tone may be introduced by bells or other instrument(s) in a brief intonation.

The Congregation, Cantors and Choir

The psalms are to be sung by the entire community—congregation, cantor(s) and choir. In many situations it will be best to have antiphon and psalm verses sung full by all. At other times and in other places it will be desirable to alternate the singing between solo voices (cantors), choir, and congregation.

Many parishes have rediscovered the important role of cantors in the singing of liturgical song, and especially in other singing of the psalms. A cantor may introduce the singing of the antiphon, which is then repeated by all—congregation and choir. In some places, and during certain times of the year, it may be preferable to have the psalm verses sung by a single cantor, or by a small group of cantors. This is an ideal manner of teaching the singing of psalms. When all have heard the psalm verses sung by a single cantor or small group, it will become easier for the entire congregation to join in singing the verses of familiar and more frequently used psalms.

The psalms and antiphons have been sung by the Church for many centuries, and it is hoped that this music will continue to be sung for years to come.

Gloria Patri

In the daily offices Gloria Patri is always sung at the conclusion of the entire portion of the Psalter; and may be used after each psalm, and after each section of Psalm 119. The antiphon is sung after the Gloria Patri.

Listed below is a chart of the Gloria Patri set to each psalm tone. The chart includes one ending for each tone. Different endings can be pointed out based on the examples given in the chart.

bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither; *
everything they do shall prosper.
- 4 It is not so with the wicked; *
they are like chaff which the wind blows away.
- 5 Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgment comes, *
nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.
- 6 For the LORD knows the way of the righteous, *
but the way of the wicked is doomed. [Ant.]

On the Twelve Days of Christmas

You are my Son; this day have I begotten you.

In Easter Season

I will give you the na - tions for your in - her - i - tance, and the ends of the earth for your pos - ses - sion, hal - le - lu - jah.

On other Sundays and Weekdays

I my - self have set my king up - on my ho - ly hill of Zi - on.

Psalm 2 Quare fremuerunt gentes?

Quare fremuerunt gentes?

Tone VIII.1

- 1 Why are the nations in an úproar? *
Why do the peoples / mutter éempty threats?
- 2 Why do the kings of the earth rise up in revolt,
and the princes plot togethé^her, *
against the LORD and against / his Anóⁱnted?
- 3 “Let us break their yoke,” they sáy; *
“let us cast / off their bóⁿds from us.”
- 4 He whose throne is in heaven is lá^uughing; *
the Lord has them / in derí^sion.
- 5 Then he speaks to them in his wrá^hth, *
and his rage fills / them with té^rror.

- 6 "I myself have s^ét my king *
upon my holy / hill of Z^íon."
- 7 Let me announce the decree of the L^ÓRD: *
he said to me, "You are my Son;
this day have / I beg^ótten you.
- 8 Ask of me, and I will give you the nations for your inh^éritance *
and the ends of the earth for / your poss^éssion.
- 9 You shall crush them with an ir^ón rod * and shatter them like a / piece of p^óttery."
- 10 And now, you k^íngs, be wise; *
be warned, you / rulers ^óf the earth.
- 11 Submit to the L^ÓRD with fear, *
and with trembling / bow bef^óre him;
- 12 Lest he be angry and you p^érish; *
for his wrath is / quickly k^índled.
- 13 Happy are they ^áll *
who take / refuge ^ín him! [Ant.]

In Easter Season

De - liv - erance be - longs to the LORD, hal - le - lu - jah.

On other Sundays and Weekdays

You, O LORD, are a shield a - bout me; you are the one who lifts up my head.

Psalm 3

Domine, quid multiplicati

Tone II.1

- 1 LORD, how many adversaries I have! *
how many there are who rise up / agáinst me!
- 2 How many there are who sáy of me, *
“There is no help for him / in his God.”
- 3 But you, O LORD, are a shield abóut me; *
you are my glory, the one who lifts / up mý head.
- 4 I call aloud upon the LÓRD, *
and he answers me from / his hólý hill;
- 5 I lie down and go to sléep; *
I wake again, because the LORD / sustáins me.
- 6 I do not fear the multitudes of péople * who set themselves against / me áll around.

7 Rise up, O LORD; set me free, O my Góð; *
surely, you will strike all my enemies across the face,
you will break the teeth of / the wícked.

8 Deliverance belongs to the LÓRD. *
Your blessing be upon / your péople! [Ant.]

In Easter Season

You have put glad - ness in my heart, O LORD; hal - le - lu - jah.

On other Sundays and Weekdays

Have mer - cy on me, O LORD, and hear my prayer.

Psalm 4 Cum invocarem

Tone IV.1

- 1 Ansüer me when I call, O God, defender / of my cáuse; *
you set me free when I am hard-pressed;
have mercy on / me and hëär mÿ prayer.
- 2 “You mortals, how long will you disho/nor my glóry; *
how long will you worship dumb idols
/ and run äfter fálse gods?”
- 3 Know that the LORD does wonders / for the fáithful; *
when I call upon the / LORD, he wíll hëär me.
- 4 Tremble, then, and / do not sín; *
speak to your heart in / silence üpon yóür bed.

- 5 Offer the appointed / sacrifices *
and / put your trüst in the LORD.
- 6 Many are saying,
“Oh, that we / might see better times!” *
Lift up the light of your countenance upon us, O LORD.
- 7 You have put gladness / in my heart, *
more than when grain and / wine and oil increase.
- 8 I lie down in peace; at once I / fall asleep; *
for only you, LORD, / make me dwell in safety. [Ant.]

In Easter Season

Those who love your Name will ex - ult in you, hal - le - lu - jah.

On other Sundays and Weekdays

I make my mor - ning prayer to you; for you, O LORD, will hear my voice.

Psalm 5

Verba mea auribus

Tone VI

- 1 Give ear to / my words, O LORD; *
consider my / meditation.
- 2 Harken to my cry for help, my King / and my God, *
for I / make my prayer to you.
- 3 In the morning, LORD, / you hear my voice; *
early in the morning I make my appeal and watch for you.

- 4 For you are not a God who takes pleasure / in wickedness, *
and evil / cannot dwell with you.
- 5 Braggarts cannot stand / in your sight; *
you hate all those / who work wickedness.
- 6 You destroy those / who speak lies; *
the bloodthirsty and deceitful, / O LORD, you abhor.
- 7 But as for me, through the greatness of your mercy I will go in/to your house; *
I will bow down toward your holy temple in awe of you.
- 8 Lead me, O LORD, in your righteousness,
because of those who lie / in wait for me; *
make your way / straight before me.
- 9 For there is no / truth in their mouth; *
there is destruction in their heart;
- 10 Their throat is / an open grave; *
they / flatter with their tongue.
- 11 Declare them guilty, O God; *
let them fall, / because of their schemes.
- 12 Because of their many transgressions cast them out, *
for they have rebelled against you.
- 13 But all who take refuge in / you will be glad; *
they will sing out their / joy forever.
- 14 You / will shelter them, *
so that those who love your Name / may exult in you.
- 15 For you, O LORD, will bless / the righteous; *
you will defend them with your favor / as with a shield. [Ant.]

In Holy Week

In the time of my trou - ble, I sought the LORD.

In Easter Season

The LORD has heard my sup - pli - ca - tion; the LORD ac - cepts

my prayer, hal - le - lu - jah.

On other Sundays and Weekdays

Save me, O LORD, for your mer - cy's sake.

Psalm 6 Domine, ne in furoreTone II.1

- 1 LORD, do not rebuke me in your ánger; *
do not punish me / in yóur wrath.
- 2 Have pity on me, LORD, for Í am weak; *
heal me, LORD, for my / bones áre racked.
- 3 My spirit shakes with térror; *
how long, O / LORD, hów long?
- 4 Turn, O LORD, and delíver me; *
save me for your / mercý's sake.
- 5 For in death no one remémbers you; *
and who will give you thanks / in thé grave?

- 6 I grow weary because of my gróaning; *
every night I drench my bed
and flood my / couch wíth tears.
- 7 My eyes are wasted with griéf *
and worn away because of all / my énemies.
- 8 Depart from me, all evildóers, *
for the LORD has heard the sound of / my wéeping.
- 9 The LORD has heard my supplicátion; *
the LORD ac/cepts mý prayer.
- 10 All my enemies shall be confounded and quáke with fear; *
they shall turn back and suddenly be / put tó shame. [Ant.]

In Easter Season

I will bear wit - ness that the LORD is righ - teous, hal - le - lu - jah.

On other Sundays and Weekdays

God is a righ - teous judge; he is the sav - ior of the true at heart.

Psalm 7 Domine, Deus meus

Tone VIII.1

- 1 O LORD my God, I take refuge in yóu; *
save and deliver me from all / who pursúe me;
- 2 Lest like a lion they tear me in piéces *
and snatch me away with none / to delíver me.
- 3 O LORD my God, if I have done thése things: *
if there is any wicked/ness in mý hands,
- 4 If I have repaid my friend with évil, *
or plundered him who without cause / is my énemy;
- 5 Then let my enemy pursue and overtáke me, *
trample my life into the ground,
and lay my / honor ín the dust.
- 6 Stand up, O LORD, in your wráth; *
rise up against the fury / of my énemies.
- 7 Awake, O my God, decree jústice; *
let the assembly of the peoples / gather róund you.
- 8 Be seated on your lofty throne, O Móst High; *
O LORD, / judge the nátions.

- 9 Give judgment for me according to my righteousness, O LÓRD, *
and according to my inno/cence, O Móst High.
- 10 Let the malice of the wicked come to an end,
but establish the ríghteous; *
for you test the mind and / heart, O ríghteous God.
- 11 God is my shield and deféñse; *
he is the savior / of the trúe in heart.
- 12 God is a ríghteous judge; *
God sits in / judgment évery day.
- 13 If they will not repent, God will whét his sword; *
he will bend his bow and / make it réady.
- 14 He has prepared his weapons of déath; *
he makes his / arrows sháfts of fire.
- 15 Look at those who are in labor with wíckedness, *
who conceive evil, and give / birth to á lie.
- 16 They dig a pit and máke it deep *
and fall into the / hole that théy have made.
- 17 Their malice turns back upon théir own head; *
their violence / falls on théir own scalp.
- 18 I will bear witness that the LORD is ríghteous; *
I will praise the Name / of the LÓRD Most High. [Ant.]

In Advent

The LORD is at hand; go out and meet him and say: Great is

On other Sundays and Weekdays

How ex - alt - ed is your Name, O LORD, in all the world.

Domine, Dominus noster

Tone VII.3

- 1 —O LÓRD our Góvornor, *
how exalted is your Náme in áll the world!
- 2 Out of the mouths of ínfants and éildren *
your majesty is praised abóve the héavens.
- 3 You have set up a stronghold agáinst your advérsaries, *
to quell the enemy ánd the avénger.
- 4 When I consider your heavens, the wórk of your fíngers, *
the moon and the stars you have sét in their cóurses,
- 5 What is man that you should be míndful óf him? *
the son of man that yóu should séek him out?
- 6 You have made him but little lower thán the ángels; *
you adorn him with glóry and hónor;
- 7 You give him mastery over the wórks of yóur hands; *
you put all things únder hí's feet:
- 8 All shéep and óxen, *
even the wíld beasts óf the field,
- 9 The birds of the air, the físh of thé sea, *
and whatsoever walks in the páths of thé sea.
- 10 O LÓRD our Góvornor, *
how exalted is your Náme in áll the world! [Ant.]

In Easter Season

of trou - ble.

Psalm 9 Confitebor tibi

Tone I.1

- 1 I will give thanks to you, O LÓRD, with my whole heart; *
I will tell of / all your márvelous works.
- 2 I will be glád and rejóice in you; *
I will sing to your / Name, O Móst High.
- 3 When my enemiés are dríven back, *
they will stumble and perish / at your préseⁿce.
- 4 For you have maintained my ríght and mý cause; *
you sit upon / your throne júdging right.
- 5 You have rebuked the ungodly and destróyed the wícked; *
you have blotted out their name for / ever ánd ever.
- 6 As for the enemy, they are finished, in perpétual rúin, *
their cities plowed under, the me/mory of thém perished;

- 7 But the LORD is enthroned for éver; *
he has set up his / throne for jüdgment.
- 8 It is he who rules the wórl'd with ríghteousness; *
he judges the peo/ples with 'ëquity.
- 9 The LORD will be a refuge fór the óppressed, *
a refuge in / time of tröuble.
- 10 Those who know your Name will pút their trúst in you, *
for you never forsake those who / seek you, 'Ö LORD.
- 11 Sing praise to the LORD who dwélls in 'Zion; *
proclaim to the peoples the / things he há's done.
- 12 The Avenger of blood wíll remémber them; *
he will not forget the cry of / the afflícted.
- 13 Have 'pity on mé, O LORD; *
see the misery I suffer from those who hate me,
O you who lift me up / from the 'gáte of death;
- 14 So that I may tell of all your praises
and rejoice in yóur salvátiön *
in the gates of the ci/ty of 'Zion.
- 15 The ungodly have fallen into the 'pit they dug, *
and in the snare they set is / their own föö't caught.
- 16 The LORD is known by his ácts of jústice; *
the wicked are trapped in the / works of th'eí'r own hands.
- 17 The wicked shall be given óver tó the grave, *
and also all the peoples / that for'gèt God.
- 18 For the needy shall not álways be f'orgotten, *
and the hope of the poor shall not / perish f'ör ever.
- 19 Rise up, O LORD, let not the ungodly háve the úpper hand; *
let them be / judged befóre you.
- 20 Put fear upón them, Ó LORD; *
let the ungodly know / they are bú't mortal. [Ant.]

In Easter Season

Psalm 10*Ut quid, Domine?Tone IV.1*

- 1 Why dō you stand so / far off, Ó LORD, *
and hide your/self in t̃ime of tr̃ouble?
- 2 The wicked arrogantly perse/cute the p̃oor, *
but they are trapped in the / schemes they h̃äve d̃evised.
- 3 The wicked boast of their / heart's des̃ire; *
the covetous / curse and r̃evile th̃e LORD.
- 4 The wicked are so proud that / they care ñot for God; *
their only thought is, / "God does ñot m̃ätter."
- 5 Their ways are devious at all times;
your judgments are far above / out of th̃eir sight; *
they defy / all their ãñemies.
- 6 They say in their heart, "I shall / not be sh̃aken; *
no harm shall / happen t̃o me 'ëver."
- 7 Their mouth is full of cursing, deceit, / and oppr̃ession; *
under their / tongue are m̃ischief ä̃nd wrong.
- 8 They lurk in ambush in public squares
and in secret places they mur/der the ãnnocent; *
they / spy out th̃e h̃elpless.

- 9 They lie in wait, like a lion in a covert;
they lie in wait to seize up/on the lówly; *
they seize the lowly and drag / them awäy in thëir net.
- 10 The innocent are broken and hum/bled befóre them; *
the helpless / fall befóre their pówer.
- 11 They say in their heart, “God / has forgóttén; *
he hides his face; / he will nēver nōtice.”
- 12 Rise up, O LORD;
lift / up your hánd, O God; *
do not / forget thë afflìcted.
- 13 Why should the wick/ed revíle God? *
why should they say in / their heart, “Yöu do nót care”?
- 14 Surely, you behold trou/ble and míserý; *
you see it and take it / into yöur ówn hand.
- 15 The helpless com/mit themsélves to you, *
for you are the / helper öf örphans.
- 16 Break the power of the wick/ed and évil; *
search out their wickedness / until yöu fínd none.
- 17 The LORD is King for ev/er and éver; *
the ungodly shall / perish fröm hís land.
- 18 The LORD will hear the desire / of the húmble; *
you will strengthen their heart / and your eärs sháll hear;
- 19 To give justice to the / orphan ánd oppressed, *
so that mere mortals / may strike tërror nō more. [Ant.]

Psalm 11*In Domino confidoTone V.1*

- 1 In the LORD have I taken réfuge; *
how then can you say to me,
“Fly away like a bírd to the hílltop;
- 2 For see how the wicked bend the bow
and fit their arrows to the stíring, *
to shoot from ambush át the trúe of heart.
- 3 When the foundations are being destróyed, *
what cán the ríghteous do?”
- 4 The LORD is in his holy témples; *
the LORD’s thróne is in héaven.
- 5 His eyes behold the inhabited wórld; *
his piercing éye weighs our worth.
- 6 The LORD weighs the righteous as well as the wícked, *
but those who delight in víolence hé abhors.
- 7 Upon the wicked he shall rain coals of fire and burning súlphur; *
a scorching wínd shall bé their lot.
- 8 For the LORD is righteous;
he delights in ríghteous deeds; *
and the júst shall sée his face. [Ant.]

Psalm 12*Salvum me facTone I.2*

- 1 Help mē, LORD, for there is no gódlý óne left; *
the faithful have vanished / from amóng üs.
- 2 Everyone speaks falsely wíth his néighbor; *
with a smooth tongue they speak / from a dóuble hěart.
- 3 Oh, that the LORD would cút off all smóoth tongues, *
and close the lips that / utter próud böästs!
- 4 Those who say, “With our tongue wíll we prévail; *
our lips are our own; who / is lord ’över üs?”
- 5 “Because the needy are oppressed,
and the poor cry óut in mísery, *
I will rise up,” says the LORD
“and give them the / help they lóng för.”

- 6 The words of the LÓRD are púre words, *
like silver refined from ore
and purified seven / times in thě fire.
- 7 O LÓRD, watch óver us *
and save us from this gene/ration főr evěr.
- 8 The wicked prówl on évery side, *

Psalm 13 Usquequo, Domine?

Tone VI

- 1 How lōng, O LORD?
will you forget me / for éver? *
how long will you / hide yōur fáce from me?
- 2 How long shall I have perplexity in my mind,
and grief in my heart, / day áfter day? *
how long shall my enemy / triũph óver me?
- 3 Look upon me and answer me, / O LÓRD my God; *
give light to my eyes, / lest Ĩ sléep in death;

- 4 Lest my enemy say, "I have pre/vailed óver him," *
and my foes rejoice that / I häve fállen.
- 5 But I put my trust in / your mércy; *
my heart is joyful because / of yöür sáving help.
- 6 I will sing to the LORD, for he has dealt with / me ríchly; *
I will praise the Name / of thë Lórd Most High. [Ant.]

Psalm 14 Dixit insipiens

Tone III.4

- 1 The fòol has said in his heart, "Thére is ñö God." *
All are corrupt and commit abominable acts;
there is none who / does ány good.
- 2 The LORD looks down from héaven upoñ uš all, *
to see if there is any who is wise,
if there is one who / seeks áfter God.
- 3 Every one has proved faithless;
all alike have túrned bad; *
there is none who does good; / no, nót one.

- 4 Have they no knowledge, áll those évildoers *
 who eat up my people like bread
 and do not call / upón the LORD?
- 5 See how they trémble wíth fear, *
 because God is in the company of / the ríghteous.
- 6 Their aim is to confound the pláns of the áfflicted, *
 but the LORD is / their réfuge.
- 7 Oh, that Israel's deliverance would cóme out of Žion! *
 when the LORD restores the fortunes of his people,
 Jacob will rejoice and Isra/el bé glad. [Ant.]

- 1 Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in yóu; *
I have said to the LORD, "You are my Lord,
my good a/bove all óther."
- 2 All my delight is upon the godly that are in the lánd, *
upon those who are noble a/mong the péople.
- 3 But those who run after óther gods *
shall have their / troubles múltiplied.
- 4 Their libations of blood I will not óffer, *
nor take the names of their / gods upón my lips.
- 5 O LORD, you are my portion and mý cup; *
it is you / who uphóld my lot.
- 6 My boundaries enclose a pleásant land; *
indeed, I have a / goodly héritage.
- 7 I will bless the LORD who gives me cóunsel; *
my heart teaches me, / night após night.
- 8 I have set the LORD always befóre me; *
because he is at my right / hand I sháll not fall.
- 9 My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejóices; *
my body al/so shall rést in hope.
- 10 For you will not abandon me to the gráve, *

Psalm 17 Exaudi, Domine

Tone VIII.1

- 1 Hear my plea of innocence, O LORD;
give heed to my cry; *
listen to my prayer, which does not / come from lying lips.
- 2 Let my vindication come forth from your presence; *
let your eyes be / fixed on justice.
- 3 Weigh my heart, summon me by night, *
melt me down; you will find no im/purity in me.
- 4 I give no offense with my mouth as others do; *
I have heeded the / words of your lips.
- 5 My footsteps hold fast to the ways of your law; *
in your paths my feet / shall not stumble.
- 6 I call upon you, O God, for you will answer me; *
incline your ear to / me and hear my words.
- 7 Show me your marvelous loving-kindness, *
O Savior of those who take refuge at your right hand
from those who rise / up against them.

- 8 Keep me as the apple of your éye; *
hide me under the / shadow óf your wings,
- 9 From the wicked who assáult me, *
from my deadly enemies / who surróund me.
- 10 They have closed their heart to píty, *
and their / mouth speaks próud things.
- 11 They press me hard,
now they surróund me, *
watching how they may / cast me tó the ground,
- 12 Like a lion, greedy for its préy, *
and like a young lion lurking in / secret pláces.
- 13 Arise, O LORD; confront them and bring thém down; *
deliver me from the / wicked bý your sword.
- 14 Deliver me, O LORD, by yóur hand *
from those whose portion in / life is thís world;
- 15 Whose bellies you fill with your tréasure, *
who are well supplied with children
and leave their wealth / to their líttle ones.
- 16 But at my vindication I shall see yóur face; *
when I awake, I shall be satisfied, behol/ding your líkeness. [Ant.]

- 3 I will call upon the LÓRD, *
and so shall I be saved / from my énemies.
- 4 The breakers of death rolled óver me, *
and the torrents of oblivion / made me áfraid.

- 5 The cords of hell entangled me, *
and the snares of / death were set for me.
- 6 I called upon the LORD in my distress *
and cried out / to my God for help.
- 7 He heard my voice from his heavenly dwelling; *
my cry of anguish / came to his ears.
- 8 The earth reeled and rocked; *
the roots of the mountains shook;
they reeled because / of his anger.
- 9 Smoke rose from his nostrils
and a consuming fire out of his mouth; *
hot burning / coals blazed forth from him.
- 10 He parted the heavens and came down *
with a storm cloud / under his feet.
- 11 He mounted on cherubim and flew; *
he swooped on the / wings of the wind.
- 12 He wrapped darkness about him; *
he made dark waters and thick clouds / his pavilion.
- 13 From the brightness of his presence, through the clouds, *
burst hail/stones and coals of fire.
- 14 The LORD thundered out of heaven; *
the Most High / uttered his voice.
- 15 He loosed his arrows and scattered them; *
he hurled thunder/bolts and routed them.
- 16 The beds of the seas were uncovered,
and the foundations of the world laid bare, *
at your battle cry, O LORD,
at the blast of the breath / of your nostrils.

- 17 He reached down from on high and grásped me; *
he drew me out / of great wáters.
- 18 He delivered me from my strong enemies
and from those who háted me; *
for they were too / mighty fór me.
- 19 They confronted me in the day of my disáster; *
but the / LORD was mý support.
- 20 He brought me out into an ópen place; *
he rescued me because he de/lighted ín me. [Ant.]

On the Twelve Days of Christmas

The LORD shows lov - ing - kind - ness to his a - noint - ed, to Da - vid and his des - cend - ants for ev - er.

In Easter Season

The LORD lives! Ex - alt - ed is the God of my sal - va - tion,

hal - le - lu - jah!

On other Sundays and Weekdays

You, O LORD, are my lamp; my God, you make my dark - ness bright.

- 21 The LORD rewarded me because of my righteous déaling; *
because my hands were cléan he rewárded me;
- 22 For I have kept the ways of the LÓRD *
and have not offénded agáinst my God;
- 23 For all his judgments are before mý eyes, *
and his decrees I have not pút away from me;
- 24 For I have been blameless with hím *
and have kept mysélf from iníquity;
- 25 Therefore the LORD rewarded me according to my righteous déaling, *
because of the cleanness of my hánds in his sight.
- 26 With the faithful you show yourself faithful, Ó God; *
with the forthright you shów yourself fóthright.
- 27 With the pure you show yoursélf pure, *
but with the crooked yóu are wíly.
- 28 You will save a lowly péople, *
but you will húmble the háughty eyes.
- 29 You, O LORD, are mý lamp; *
my God, you máke my dárkness bright.
- 30 With you I will break down an enclósure; *
with the help of my God Í will scale ány wall.
- 31 As for God, his ways are perfect;
the words of the LORD are tried in the fíre; *
he is a shield to áll who trúst in him.
- 32 For who is God, but the LÓRD? *
who is the Róck, excépt our God?
- 33 It is God who girds me abóut with strength *
and mákes my wáy secure.

- 34 He makes me sure-footed like a deer *
and lets me stand firm on the heights.
- 35 He trains my hands for battle *
and my arms for bending even a bow of bronze.
- 36 You have given me your shield of victory; *
your right hand also sustains me;
your loving care makes me great.
- 37 You lengthen my stride beneath me, *
and my ankles do not give way.
- 38 I pursue my enemies and overtake them; *
I will not turn back till I have destroyed them.
- 39 I strike them down, and they cannot rise; *
they fall defeated at my feet.
- 40 You have girded me with strength for the battle; *
you have cast down my adversaries beneath me;
you have put my enemies to flight.
- 41 I destroy those who hate me;
they cry out, but there is none to help them; *
they cry to the LORD, but he does not answer.
- 42 I beat them like dust before the wind; *
I trample them like mud in the streets.
- 43 You deliver me from the strife of the peoples; *
you put me at the head of the nations.
- 44 A people I have not known shall serve me;
no sooner shall they hear than they shall obey me; *
strangers will crouch before me.
- 45 The foreign peoples will lose heart; *
they shall come trembling out of their strongholds.
- 46 The LORD lives! Blessed is my Rock! *
Exalted is the God of my salvation!
- 47 He is the God who gave me victory *
and cast down the peoples beneath me.

- 48 You rescued me from the fury of my enemies;
you exalted me above those who rose against me; *
you saved me from my deadly foe.
- 49 Therefore will I extol you among the nations, O LÓRD, *
and sing praises to your Name.
- 50 He multiplies the victories of his king; *
he shows loving-kindness to his anointed,
to David and his descendants for ever. [Ant.]

- 1 The king rejoices in your strength, Ó LORD; *
how greatly he exúlts in your víctory!
- 2 You have given him his héart's desire; *
you have not denied him the requést of his lips.
- 3 For you meet him with blessings of prospérity, *
and set a crown of fine góld upón his head.

- 4 He asked you for life, and you gave it to him: *
length of days, for éver and éver.
- 5 His honor is great, because of your víctory; *
splendor and majesty have you bestówed upón him.
- 6 For you will give him everlasting felicity *
and will make him glad with the jóy of your présence.
- 7 For the king puts his trust in the LÓRD; *
because of the loving-kindness of the Most High, hé will nót fall.
- 8 Your hand will lay hold upon all your énemies; *
your right hand will seize áll those who háte you.
- 9 You will make them like a fiery fúrnace *
at the time of your appéaring, Ó LORD;
- 10 You will swallow them up in yóur wrath, *
and fire shall consúme them.
- 11 You will destroy their offspring fróm the land *
and their descendants from among the péoples óf the earth.
- 12 Though they intend evil against you

and from the / words of m^y dⁱstress?
- 2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you / do not äns^äwer; *
by night as well, / but I fⁱnd n^ö rest.
- 3 Yet you / are the H^óly One, *
enthroned upon the / praises öf Ísräel.
- 4 Our forefathers / put their tr^üst in you; *
they trusted, and / you deliv^äred them.
- 5 They cried out to you and / were deliv^äred; *
they trusted in you and / were not p^üt t^ö shame.
- 6 But as for me, I am a / worm and n^ó man, *
scorned by all and / despised b^y the p^öple.

- 7 All who see me laugh / me to scór[́]n; *
they curl their lips and / wag their hēads, sáy[́]ing,
- 8 “He trusted in the LORD; let / him delí[́]ver him; *
let him rescue him, if / he delí[́]ghts ín[́] him.”
- 9 Yet you are he who took me out / of the wó[́]mb, *
and kept me safe up/on my mó[́]thēr’s breast.
- 10 I have been entrusted to you ever since / I was bó[́]rn; *
you were my God when I was still / in my mó[́]thēr’s womb.

all you of / Jacob's líne, gíve glöry.
- 23 For he does not despise nor abhor the poor in their poverty;
neither does he / hide his fáce from them; *
but when they / cry to hím hé hěars them.
- 24 My praise is of him in the / great assémbly; *
I will perform my vows in the presence of / those who wörshíp him.
- 25 The poor shall eat and be satisfied,
and those who seek the / LORD shall práise him: *
“May / your heart líve fór éver!”
- 26 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn / to the LÓRD, *
and all the families of the na/tions shall böw béföre him.
- 27 For kingship belongs / to the LÓRD; *
he / rules ovèr thé nàtions.
- 28 To him alone all who sleep in the earth bow / down in wörship; *
all who go down to the / dust fall bëföre him.
- 29 My soul shall live for him;

- 3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters;
the God of glórý thúnders; *
the LORD is upon the migh/ty wáters.
- 4 The voice of the LORD is a pówerfúl voice; *
the voice of the LORD is a voice / of spléndor.
- 5 The voice of the LORD bréaks the cédär trees; *
the LORD breaks the cedars / of Lébanon;
- 6 He makes Lebanon skip like ä calf, *
and Mount Hermon like / a yóung wild ox.
- 7 The voice of the LORD splits the flames of fire;
the voice of the LORD shákes the wíldërness; *
the LORD shakes the wilderness / of Kádesh.

- 8 The voice of the LORD mákes the óak trées writhe *
and strips / the fórests bare.
- 9 And in the témples óf thë LORD *
all are cry/ing, "Glóry!"
- 10 The LORD sits enthronéd abóve thë flood; *
the LORD sits enthroned as King / for évermore.
- 11 The LORD shall give stréngth to his pëople; *
the LORD shall give his people the bless/ing óf peace. [Ant.]

In Easter Season

You have re - stored my life, O LORD; hal - le - lu - jah.

On other Sundays and Weekdays

O LORD my God, I cried out to you, and you re - stored me to health.

Psalm 30

Exaltabo te, Domine

Tone I.2

- 1 I will exalt you, O LORD,
because you have lifted mé up *
and have not let my enemies / triumph över më.
- 2 O LORD my God, I cried out tó you, *
and you / restored më to *hë*alth.
- 3 You brought me up, O LÓRD, from thé dead; *
you restored my life as I was go/ing down tö the gräve.
- 4 Sing to the LORD, you sérvants óf his; *
give thanks for the remembrance / of his hölinëss.
- 5 For his wrath endures but the twinkling óf an eye, *
his favor / for a *lë*ftime.

- 6 —Wéeping may spénd the night, *
but joy comes / in the mörning.
- 7 While I felt secure, I said,
“I shall néver bé disturbed. *
You, LORD, with your favor, made me as strong / as the móüntäins.”
- 8 —Thén you híd your face, *
and / I was fílléd with féar.
- 9 I cried to yóu, O LORD; *
I pleaded / with the Lórd, saying,
- 10 “What profit is there in my blood, if I go dówn to thé Pit? *
will the dust praise you or de/clare your fáithfulnëss?
- 11 Hear, O LORD, and have mércy upón me; *
O LORD, / be my hëlpër.”
- 12 You have turned my wailing ínto dāncing; *
you have put off my sack-cloth and / clothed me wíth jöy.
- 13 Therefore my heart sings to you wíthout céasing; *
O LORD my God, I will give you / thanks for ’ëvër. [Ant.]

Antiphon

In - cline your ear to me, O LORD; make haste to de - liv - er me.

- 1 În yôu, O LORD, have I taken refuge;
let me néver be pút to shame; *
deliver mé in your ríghteousness.
- 2 Inclíne your éar to me; *
make háste to delíver me.
- 3 Be my strong rock, a castle to keep me safe,
for you are my crág and my stróngthold; *
for the sake of your Name, léad me and gúide me.
- 4 Take me out of the net that they have sécretly sét for me, *
for yóu are my tówer of strength.
- 5 Into your hands I comménd my spírit, *
for you have redeemed me,
O LÓRD, O Gód of truth.
- 6 I hate those who cling to wóorthless ídols, *
and I put my trúst in thé LORD.
- 7 I will rejoice and be glad becáuse of your mércy; *
for you have seen my affliction;
yóu know mý distress.
- 8 You have not shut me up in the pówer of the énemy; *
you have set my féet in an ópen place.
- 9 Have mercy on me, O LORD, for Í am in tróuble; *
my eye is consumed with sorrow,
and also my throát and my bélly.
- 10 For my life is wasted with grief,
and my yéars with síghing; *
my strength fails me because of affliction,
and my bónes are cónsumed.

- 11 I have become a reproach to all my enemies and even to my neighbors,
a dismay to those of my acquaintance; *
when they see me in the street they avoid me.
- 12 I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind; *
I am as useless as a broken pot.
- 13 For I have heard the whispering of the crowd;
fear is all around; *
they put their heads together against me;
They plot to take my life.
- 14 But as for me, I have trusted in you, O LORD. *
I have said, "You are my God.
- 15 My times are in your hand; *
rescue me from the hand of my enemies,
and from those who persecute me.
- 16 Make your face to shine upon your servant, *
and in your loving-kindness save me."
- 17 LORD, let me not be ashamed for having called upon you; *
rather, let the wicked be put to shame;
let them be silent in the grave.
- 18 Let the lying lips be silenced which speak against the righteous, * haughtily, disdainfully, and with contempt.
- 19 How great is your goodness, O LORD!
which you have laid up for those who fear you; *
which you have done in the sight of all
for those who put their trust in you.
- 20 You hide them in the covert of your presence from those who slander them; *
you keep them in your shelter from the strife of tongues.
- 21 —Blessed be the LORD! *
for he has shown me the wonders of his love in a besieged city.

22 Yet I said in my alarm,
 "I have been cut off from the sight of your eyes." *
 Nevertheless, you heard the sound of my entreaty when I cried out to you.

23 Love the LORD, all you who worship him; *
 the LORD protects the faithful,
 but repays to the full those who act haughtily.

24 Be strong and let your heart take courage, * all you who wait for the LORD. [Ant.]

On other Sundays and Weekdays

Hap - py are they to whom the LORD im - putes no guilt.

Psalm 32 Beati quorum

Tone III.4

- 1 Happy are they whose transgressions are forgiven, *
 and whose sin / is put away!
- 2 Happy are they to whom the LORD imputes no guilt, *
 and in whose spirit there / is no guile!
- 3 While I held my tongue, my bones withered away, *
 because of my groan/ing all day long.

- 4 For your hand was heavy upón me dáy änd night; *
my moisture was dried up as in the heat / of súmmer.
- 5 Then I acknówledged my sín tö you, *
and did not / concéal my guilt.
- 6 I said, "I will confess my transgréssions to thě LORD." *
Then you forgave me the guilt / of my sín.
- 7 Therefore all the faithful will make their prayers to you in tíme of tróuble; *
when the great waters overflow, they shall / not réach them.
- 8 You are my hiding-place;
you présérve me from tróuble; *
you surround me with shouts of / delíverance.
- 9 "I will instruct you and teach you in the wáy that you shóuld go; *
I will guide / you wíth my eye.
- 10 Do not be like horse or mule, which háve no undérstanding; *
who must be fitted with bit and bridle,
or else they will / not stáy near you."
- 11 Great are the tribulations óf the wícked; *
but mercy embraces those who trust / in thě LORD.
- 12 Be glad, you righteous, and rejóice in thě LORD; *
shout for joy, all who / are trúe of heart. [Ant.]

Psalm 33 Exultate, justi

Tone I.2

- 1 *Rej*öice in the LÓRD, you ríghteous; *
it is good for the just / to sing práisēs.
- 2 Praise the LÓRD with thé harp; *
play to him upon the / psalterý and lýre.
- 3 Sing for hím a nów song; *
sound a fanfare with all your skill up/on the trümpét.
- 4 For the wórd of the LÓRD is right, *
and / all his wórks are süre.
- 5 He loves ríghteousness ánd justice; *
the loving-kindness of the LORD / fills the w hóle ëarth.
- 6 By the word of the LORD wére the héavens made, *
by the breath of his mouth / all the hëavenly hösts.

- 7 He gathers up the waters of the ocean as in a water-skin *
and stores up the / depths of the sea.
- 8 Let all the earth fear the LORD; *
let all who dwell in the world / stand in awe of him.
- 9 For he spoke, and it came to pass; *
he commanded, / and it stood fast.
- 10 The LORD brings the will of the nations to naught; *
he thwarts the designs / of the peoples.
- 11 But the LORD's will stands fast for ever, *
and the designs of his / heart from age to age.
- 12 Happy is the nation whose God is the LORD! *
happy the people he has chosen / to be his own!
- 13 The LORD looks down from heaven, *
and beholds all the / people in the world.
- 14 From where he sits enthroned he turns his gaze *
on all who / dwell on the earth.
- 15 He fashions all the hearts of them *
and under/stands all their works.
- 16 There is no king that can be saved by a mighty army; *
a strong man is not delivered / by his great strength.
- 17 The horse is a vain hope for deliverance; *
for all its / strength it cannot save.
- 18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon those who fear him, *
on those who / wait upon his love,
- 19 To pluck their lives from death, *
and to feed them in / time of famine.
- 20 Our soul waits for the LORD; *
he is our / help and our shield.

21 Indeed, our heart rejoyces in him, *
for in his holy / Name we put our trust.

22 Let your loving-kindness, O LORD, be upon us, * as we have / put our trust in you. [Ant.]

Psalm 34

Benedicam Dominum

Tone V.1

1 I will bless the LORD at all times; *
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

2 I will glory in the LORD; *
let the humble hear and rejoice.

- 3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the LÓRD; *
let us exalt his Náme together.
- 4 I sought the LORD, and he ánswered me *
and delivered me out of áll my térror.
- 5 Look upon him and be rádiant, *
and let not your fáces bé ashamed.
- 6 I called in my affliction and the LORD héard me *
and saved me from áll my tróubles.
- 7 The angel of the LORD encompasses those who féar him, *
and hé will deliver them.
- 8 Taste and see that the LÓRD is good; *
happy are théy who trúst in him!
- 9 Fear the LORD, you that are his saints, *
for those who fear him lack nóthing.
- 10 The young lions lack and suffer húngr, *
but those who seek the LORD lack nóthing thát is good.
- 11 Come, children, and listen to mé; *
I will teach you the féar of thé LÓRD.
- 12 Who among you loves lífe *
and desires long life to enjóy prospérité?
- 13 Keep your tongue from evil-spéaking *
and your líps from lýing words.
- 14 Turn from evil and dó good; *
seek péace and pursúe it.
- 15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the ríghteous, *
and his ears are ópen tó their cry.
- 16 The face of the LORD is against those who do évil, *
to root out the remembrance of thém from thé earth.

- 17 The righteous cry, and the LORD hears them *
and delivers them from all their troubles.
- 18 The LORD is near to the brokenhearted *
and will save those whose spirits are crushed.
- 19 Many are the troubles of the righteous, *
but the LORD will deliver him out of them all.
- 20 He will keep safe all his bones; *
not one of them shall be broken.
- 21 Evil shall slay the wicked, *
and those who hate the righteous will be punished.
- 22 The LORD ransoms the life of his servants, *
and none will be punished who trust in him. [Ant.]

Antiphon

Be not far from me, O LORD, rise up and help me.

Psalm 35 Judica, Domine

Tone VI

- 1 Fight those who / fight mé, O LORD; *
attack those who / are attacking me.
- 2 Take up shield / and armor *
and rise / up to help me.
- 3 Draw the sword and bar the way against those who / pursue me; *
say to my soul, "I am / your salvation."
- 4 Let those who seek after my life be shamed / and humbled; *
let those who plot my ruin fall back / and be dismayed.

- 5 Let them be like chaff / before the wind, *
and let the angel of the / LORD drive them away.
- 6 Let their way be dark / and slippery, *
and let the angel of the / LORD pursue them.
- 7 For they have secretly spread a net for me / without a cause; *
without a cause they have dug a pit / to take me alive.
- 8 Let ruin come upon / them unawares; *
let them be caught in the net they hid;
let them fall into / the pit they dug.
- 9 Then I will be joy/ful in the LORD; *
I will glory / in his victory.
- 10 My very bones will say, "LORD, who / is like you? *
You deliver the poor from those who are too strong for them,
the poor and needy from / those who rob them."
- 11 Malicious witnesses rise up / against me; *
they charge me with matters I / know nothing about.
- 12 They pay me evil in / exchange for good; *
my soul / is full of despair.
- 13 But when they were sick I dressed / in sack-cloth *
and humbled my/self by fasting;
- 14a I prayed with / my whole heart, *
as one would for a friend / or a brother;
- 14b I behaved like one who mourns for / his mother, *
bowed / down and grieving.
- 15 But when I stumbled, they were glad and gathered together;
they gathered / against me; *
strangers whom I did not know tore me to pieces / and would not stop.
- 16 They put me to the test / and mocked me; *
they gnashed at / me with their teeth.

- 17 O Lord, how long will / you lóok on? *
rescue me from the roaring beasts,
and my life from / the yöüng líons.
- 18 I will give you thanks in the great con/gregátion; *
I will praise you / in the m'ighty throng.
- 19 Do not let my treacherous foes re/joice óver me, *
nor let those who hate me without a cause wink / at ëach óther.
- 20 For they do / not plán for peace, *
but invent deceitful schemes against the qui/et 'in the land.
- 21 They opened their mouths / at mé and said, * “Aha! we saw it / with oür ówn eyes.”
- 22 You saw it, O LORD; do not / be sílent; *
O LORD, be / not fár fróm me.
- 23 Awake, arise / to mý cause! *
to my defense, my / God änd mý Lord!
- 24 Give me justice, O LORD my God,
according to / your r'ighteousness; *
do not let them / triümpfh óver me.
- 25 Do not let them say in their hearts, “Aha! / just whát we want!” *
Do not let them say, “We / have swállówed him up.”
- 26 Let all who rejoice at my ruin be ashamed / and dísgaced; *
let those who boast against me be clothed with / dísmäy änd shame.
- 27 Let those who favor my cause sing out with joy / and bé glad; *
let them say always, “Great is the LORD,
who desires the prosperity / of his sérvant.”
- 28 And my tongue shall be talking of / your r'ighteousness *
and of your praise / all the dáy long. [Ant.]

In Easter Season

With you, O LORD, is the well of life, hal - le - lu - jah.

On other Sundays and Weekdays

In your light, O God, we see light.

Psalm 36

Dixit injustus

Tone I.1

- 1 There is a voice of rebellion deep in the héart of the wícked; *
there is no fear of / God befóre his eyes.
- 2 He flatters himsélf in his own eyes *
that his hateful sin will / not be fóund out.
- 3 The words of his mouth are wicked ánd decéitful; *
he has left off acting wise/ly and dóing good.
- 4 He thinks up wickedness upon his bed
and has set himsélf in nó good way; *
he does not abhor that / which is évil.
- 5 Your love, O LORD, reaches tó the héavens, *
and your faith/fulness tó the clouds.
- 6 Your righteousness is like the strong mountains,
your justice líke the gréat deep; *
you save both / man and béast, O LORD.
- 7 How priceless ís your lóve, O God! *
your people take refuge under the / shadow óf your wings.
- 8 They feast upon the abúndance óf your house; *
you give them drink from the ri/ver of yóur delights.

- 9 For with yóu is the wéll of life, *
and in / your light wě see light.
- 10 Continue your loving-kindness to thóse who knów you, *
and your favor to those / who are trúe of heart.
- 11 Let not the foot of the próud come néar me, *
nor the hand of the wick/ed push mé aside.
- 12 See how they are fallen, thóse who work wíckedness! *
they are cast down and shall not be / able tó rise. [Ant.]

Psalm 37 Part 1

Noli oemulari

Tone III.4

- 1 Do nôt fret yourself because of évildöers; *
do not be jealous of those / who dó wrong.
- 2 For they shall soon wíther líke thě grass, *
and like the green / grass fáde away.
- 3 Put your trust in the LÓRD and dō good; *
dwell in the land and feed on / its ríches.
- 4 Take delíght in thě LORD, *
and he shall gíve you / your héart's desire.
- 5 Commit your way to the LORD and pút your trúst ín him, *
and he will bring / it tó pass.

- 6 He will make your righteousness as clear as the light * and your just dealing as / the noonday.
- 7 Be still before the LORD *
and wait patiently for him.
- 8 Do not fret yourself over the one who prospers, *
the one who succeeds / in evil schemes.
- 9 Refrain from anger, leave rage alone; *
do not fret yourself; it leads only / to evil.
- 10 For evildoers shall be cut off, *
but those who wait upon the LORD shall / possess the land.
- 11 In a little while the wicked shall be no more; *
you shall search out their place, but they / will not be there.
- 12 But the lowly shall possess the land; *
they will delight in abundance of peace.
- 13 The wicked plot against the righteous *
and gnash at / them with their teeth.
- 14 The LORD laughs at the wicked, *
because he sees that / their day will come.
- 15 The wicked draw their sword and bend their bow
to strike down the poor and needy, *
to slaughter those who are upright in their ways.
- 16 Their sword shall go through their own heart, *
and their bow shall / be broken.
- 17 The little that the righteous has *
is better than great riches of / the wicked.
- 18 For the power of the wicked shall be broken, *
but the LORD upholds / the righteous. [Ant.]

Psalm 37 Part 2

Novit Dominus

Tone VII.3

- 19 Thē LÖRD cares for the līves of the gódly, *
and their inheritance shall lást for éver.
- 20 They shall not be ashámed in bád times, *
and in days of famine théy shall háve enough.
- 21 As for the wicked, théy shall pérish, *
and the enemies of the LORD, like the glory of the meadows, shall vanish;
they shall vánish like smoke.
- 22 The wicked borrow and dó not répay, *
but the righteous are génerous in gíving.
- 23 Those who are blessed by Gód shall posséss the land, *
but those who are cursed by him sháll be déstroyed.
- 24 Our steps are dírected bý the LORD; *
he strengthens those in whose wáy he délights.
- 25 If they stumble, théy shall not fáll headlong, *
for the LORD hólds them bý the hand.
- 26 I have been young and nów I ám old, *
but never have I seen the righteous forsaken,
or their chíldren bégging bread.

- 27 The righteous are always generous in their lending, *
and their children shall be a blessing.
- 28 Turn from evil, and do good, *
and dwell in the land for ever.
- 29 For the LORD loves justice; *
he does not forsake his faithful ones.
- 30 They shall be kept safe for ever, *
but the offspring of the wicked shall be destroyed.
- 31 The righteous shall possess the land *
and dwell in it for ever.
- 32 The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom, *
and their tongue speaks what is right.
- 33 The law of their God is in their heart, *
and their footsteps shall not falter.
- 34 The wicked spy on the righteous *
and seek occasion to kill them.
- 35 The LORD will not abandon them to their hand, *
nor let them be found guilty when brought to trial.
- 36 Wait upon the LORD and keep his way; *
he will raise you up to possess the land,
and when the wicked are cut off, you will see it.
- 37 I have seen the wicked in their arrogance, *
flourishing like a tree in full leaf.
- 38 I went by, and behold, they were not there; *
I searched for them, but they could not be found.
- 39 Mark those who are honest;
observe the upright; *
for there is a future for the peaceable.

- 40 Transgressors shall be destróyed, one ánd all; *
the future of the wícked ís cut off.
- 41 But the deliverance of the righteous cómes from thé LORD; *
he is their stronghold in tíme of tróuble.
- 42 The LORD will hélp them and réscue them; *
he will rescue them from the wicked and deliver them,
because they seek réfuge ín him. [Ant.]

Psalm 38

Domine, ne in furore

Tone IV.4

- 1 O LÖRD, do not rebuke me / in your ánger; *
do not / punish me ín your wrath.
- 2 For your arrows have al/ready píerced me, *
and your hand pres/ses hard upón me.
- 3 There is no health in my flesh,
because of your / indignátion; *
there is no soundness in my body, / because of mý sin.
- 4 For my iniquities / overwhélm me; *
like a heavy burden they are / too much for mé to bear.
- 5 My wounds / stink and féster *
by rea/son of my fóolishness.

- 6 I am utterly bowed / down and próstrate; *
I go about in mour/ning all the dáy long.
- 7 My loins are / filled with séaring pain; *
there is no / health in my bódý.
- 8 I am utterly / numb and crúshed; *
I wail, because of the / groaning of mý heart.
- 9 O LORD, you / know all mý desires, *
and my sighing is / not hidden fróm you.
- 10 My heart is pounding, my / strength has fáiled me; *
and the brightness of / my eyes is góne from me.
- 11 My friends and companions draw back from / my affliction; *
my neigh/bors stand afár off.
- 12 Those who seek after my / life lay snáres for me; *
those who strive to hurt me speak of my ruin
and plot treacher/y all the dáy long.
- 13 But I am like the / deaf who dó not hear, *
like those who are mute and do / not open théir mouth.
- 14 I have become like / one who dóes not hear *
and from / whose mouth comes nó defense.
- 15 For in you, O LORD, have I / fixed my hópe; *
you will an/swér me, O Lórd my God.
- 16 For I said, "Do not let them re/joice at mý expense, *
those who gloat over / me when my fóot slips."
- 17 Truly, I am on the / verge of fálling, *
and my pain / is always wíth me.
- 18 I will confess / my iníquity *
and be / sorry for mý sin.

19 Those who are my enemies without / cause are m'ighty, *
and many in number are those who / wrongfully h'ate me.

20 Those who repay evil / for good sl'ander me, *
because I fol/low the course thát is right.

21 O LORD, do / not forsáke me; *
be not / far from me, Ó my God.

22 Make / haste to h'elp me, *
O Lord / of my salvátion. [Ant.]

Psalm 39

Dixi, Custodiam

Tone I.2

1 I s'aid, "I will keep w'atch up'ón my ways, *
so that I do not of/fend with m'y t'ongue.

2 I will put a múzzle ón my mouth *
while the wicked are / in my pr's'ence."

3 So I held my t'ongue and said nóthing; *
I refrained from rash words;
but my pain be/came unbé'arabl'e.

- 4 My heart was hot within me;
while I pondered, the fire búrst into flame; *
I / spoke out wíth my tǒngue:
- 5 LORD, let me know my end and the númber óf my days, *
so that I may know how / short my lífe ís.
- 6 You have given me a mere handful of days,
and my lifetime is as nóthing ín your sight; *
truly, even those who stand erect are / but a püff of wínd.
- 7 We walk about like a shadow,
and in vain wé are in túrmoil; *
we heap up riches and cannot tell / who will gáther thēm.
- 8 And now, whát is mý hope? *
O Lord, / my hope ís in yöu.
- 9 Deliver me from áll my transgréssions *
and do not make me the / taunt of thě fōol.
- 10 I fell silent and did not ópen mý mouth, *
for surely it was / you that díđ íť.
- 11 Take your afflíction fróm me; *
I am worn down by the / blows of yóur händ.
- 12 With rebukes for sin you punish us;
like a moth you eat away áll that is déar to us; *

Psalm 40*Expectans, expectaviTone II.1*

- 1 I waited patiently up^{on} the LORD; *
he stooped to me / and héard my cry.
- 2 He lifted me out of the desolate pit, out of the míre and clay; *
he set my feet upon a high cliff and made / my f^{oot}ing sure.
- 3 He put a new song in my mouth,
a song of praise to ^{our} God; *
many shall see, and stand in awe,
and put their / trust in^{the} the LORD.
- 4 Happy are they who trust in the LÓRD! *
they do not resort to evil spirits or turn / to fálse gods.

- 5 Great things are they that you have done, O LORD my God!
how great your wonders and your pláns for us! *
there is none who can be / compáred with you.
- 6 Oh, that I could make them known and téll them! *
but they are more / than Í can count.
- 7 In a sacrifice and offering you take no pléasure *
(you have given me ears / to héar you);
- 8 Burnt-offering and sin-offering you have nó't required, *
and so I said, "Be/hold, Í come.
- 9 In the roll of the book it is written concérning me: *
'I love to do your will, O my God;
your law is deep / in my' heart.'"
- 10 I proclaimed righteousness in the great congregátion; *
behold, I did not restrain my lips;
and that, / O LÓRD, you know.
- 11 Your righteousness have I not hidden in my heart;
I have spoken of your faithfulness and your delíverance; *
I have not concealed your love and faithfulness from
the great con/gregátion.
- 12 You are the LORD;
do not withhold your compassion fróm me; *
let your love and your faithfulness keep me safe / for éver,
- 13 For innumerable troubles have crowded upon me;
my sins have overtaken me, and I cánnót see; *
they are more in number than the hairs of my head,
and my / heart fáils me.
- 14 Be pleased, O LORD, to delíver me; *
O LORD, make haste / to hélp me.

- 15 Let them be ashamed and altogether dismayed
who seek after my life to destróy it; *
let them draw back and be disgraced
who take pleasure in my / misfórtune.
- 16 Let those who say “Aha!” and gloat over me be confóunded, *
because / they áre ashamed.
- 17 Let all who seek you rejoice in you ánd be glad; *
let those who love your salvation continually say, “Great / is thé LORD!”
- 18 Though I am poor and afflicted, *
the Lord will have / regárd for me.
- 19 You are my helper and my delíverer; *
do not tar/ry, Ó my God. [Ant.]

On other Sundays and Weekdays

Heal me, O LORD, for I have sinned a - gainst you.

- 1 Happ̃y are they who consider the p̃oor and ñeedy! *
the LORD will deliver them in the / time of t̃röuble.
- 2 The LORD preserves them and keeps them alive,
so that they may be h̃appy ĩn the land; *
he does not hand them over to the will / of their ẽnemies.
- 3 The LORD sustains them õn their s̃ickbed *
and ministers to them / in their ĩllness.
- 4 I said, "LORD, be m̃erciful to me; *
heal me, for I have / sinned ag̃ainst you."
- 5 My enemies are saying wicked things ab̃out me: *
"When will he die, and / his name p̃erish?"
- 6 Even if they come to see me, th̃ey speak ẽmpty words; *
their heart collects false rumors;
they go out/side and spr̃ead them.
- 7 All my enemies whisper toget̃her ab̃out me *
and devise e/vil ag̃ainst me.
- 8 "A deadly thing," they say, "has f̃astened õn him; *
he has taken to his bed and will ne/ver get ũp again."
- 9 Even my best friend, whom I trusted,
who br̃oke bread w̃ith me, *
has lifted up his heel and / turned ag̃ainst me.
- 10 But you, O LORD, be merciful to m̃e and r̃aise me up, *
and I / shall rep̃äy them.
- 11 By this I know ỹou are pl̃eased with me, *
that my enemy does not / triumph õver me.
- 12 In my integrity ỹou hold m̃e fast, *

Psalm 42*QuemadmodumTone VIII.1*

1 As the deer longs for the wa'ter-brooks,*
so longs my / soul for yóu, O God.

2† My soul is athirst for God, athirst for the líving God;*
when shall I come to appear before the / presence óf God?

- 3 My tears have been my food dáy and night, *
while all day long they say to me,
/ “Where now is your God?”
- 4 I pour out my soul when I think on thése things: *
how I went with the multitude and led them in/to the hóuse of God,
- 5 With the voice of praise and thanksgíving, *
among those / who keep hóly-day.
- 6 Why are you so full of heaviness, Ó my soul? *
and why are you so disquiet/ed within me?
- 7 Put your trúst in God; *
for I will yet give thanks to him,
who is the help of my counte/nance, and my God.
- 8 My soul is heavy within me; *
therefore I will remember you from the land of Jordan,
and from the peak of Mizar among the / heights of Hérmon.
- 9 One deep calls to another in the noise of your cátaracts; *
all your rapids and floods / have gone óver me.
- 10 The LORD grants his loving-kindness in the dáytime; *
in the night season his song is with me,
a prayer to the / God of my life.
- 11 I will say to the God of my strength, “Why have you forgóttén me? *
and why do I go so heavily while the ene/my opprésés me?
- 12 While my bones are being bróken, *
my enemies / mock me tó my face;
- 13 All day long they móck me *

Rise up, O Lord, and help us; save us for the sake of your stead - fast love.

Psalm 44

Deus, auribus

Tone III.4

- 1 We håve heard with our ears, O God,
our fórefathers have töld us, *
the deeds you did in their days,
in / the dáys of old.
- 2 How with your hand you drove the peoples out
and planted our fórefathers ín thë land; *
how you destroyed nations and made your peo/ple flóurish.
- 3 For they did not take the land by their sword,
nor did their arm win the víctory för them; *
but your right hand, your arm, and the light of your countenance,
because / you fåvored them.
- 4 You are my Kíng and mý God; *
you command victories / for Jácob.
- 5 Through you we pushed back our ádversáries; *
through your Name we trampled on those who rose up / agáinst us.
- 6 For I do not relý on mý bow, *
and my sword does not give me / the víctory.
- 7 Surely, you gave us victory over our ádversáries *
and put those who / hate ús to shame.
- 8 Every day we glóried íñ God, *
and we will praise your Name / for éver.
- 9 Nevertheless, you have rejeýted and húmbled us *
and do not go forth with / our ármies.

- 10 You have made us fall back be'fore our 'advērsary, *
and our enemies / have plūdered us.
- 11 You have made us like shēep to be éäten *
and have scattered us among / the n'ations.
- 12 You are selling your péople f'or ä trifle *
and are making no profit on / the s'ale of them.
- 13 You have made us the sc'orn of our nēigh'ors, *
a mockery and derision to those / a'round us.
- 14 You have made us a byword am'ong the n'ations, *
a laughing-stock among / the péoples.
- 15 My humiliation is d'aily be'fore me, *
and shame has co/vered mý face;
- 16 Because of the taunts of the móckers and bl'ásp'hēmers, *
because of the enemy and / avēnger.
- 17 All this has c'ome up'on us; *
yet we have not forgotten you,
nor have we betrayed / your c'ovenant.
- 18 Our héart never túrned back, *
nor did our footsteps stray / from y'our path;
- 19 Though you thrust us down into a pl'ace of m'isēry, *
and covered us over with / deep d'arkness.
- 20 If we have forgotten the N'ame of óür God, *
or stretched out our hands to / some str'ange god,
- 21 Will not G'ód find ít out? *
for he knows the se/crets óf the heart.
- 22 Indeed, for your sake we are k'illed all the d'áÿ long; *
we are accounted as sheep for / the sl'laughter.

- 23 Awake, O Lord! whý are you sléëping? *
Arise! do not reject us / for éver.
- 24 Why have you hídden ýöur face *

- 3 Strap your sword upon your thigh, O mighty wárrior, *
in your pride and / in your májesty.
- 4 Ride out and conquer in the cáuse of truth *
and for the / sake of jústice.
- 5 Your right hand will show you márvelous things; *
your arrows are very sharp, O / mighty wárrior.
- 6 The peoples are falling at your féet, *
and the king's ene/mies are lósing heart.
- 7 Your throne, O God, endures for ever and éver, *
a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of your kingdom;
you love righteousness and / hate iníquity.
- 8 Therefore God, your God, has anóinted you * with the oil of gladness a/bove your féllows.
- 9 All your garments are fragrant with myrrh, aloes, and cássia, *
and the music of strings from ivory pal/aces mákes you glad.
- 10 Kings' daughters stand among the ladies of the cóurt; *
on your right hand is the queen,
adorned with the / gold of Óphir.
- 11 "Hear, O daughter; consider and listen clósely; *
forget your people / and your fáther's house.
- 12 The king will have pleasure in your béauty; *
he is your master; therefore / do him hónor.
- 13 The people of Tyre are here with a gíft; *
the rich among the people / seek your fávor."
- 14 All glorious is the princess as she énters; *
her / gown is clóth-of-gold.
- 15 In embroidered apparel she is brought to the kíng; *
after her the bridesmaids follow / in procéssion.

16 With joy and gladness they are brought, *
and enter into the / palace of the king.

17 "In place of fathers, O king, you shall have sons; *
you shall make them princes / over all the earth.

18 I will make your name to be remembered
from one generation to another; *
therefore nations will praise you for e/ver and ever." [Ant.]

and though the mountains tremble at its tumult.
- 4 The LORD of hosts is with us; *
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.
- 5 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, *
the holy habitation of the Most High.
- 6 God is in the midst of her;
she shall not be overthrown; *
God shall help her at the break of day.
- 7 The nations make much ado, and the kingdoms are shaken; *
God has spoken, and the earth shall melt away.
- 8 The LORD of hosts is with us; *
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.
- 9 Come now and look upon the works of the LORD, *
what awesome things he has done on earth.
- 10 It is he who makes war to cease in all the world; *
he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear,
and burns the shields with fire.
- 11 "Be still, then, and know that I am God; *
I will be exalted among the nations;
I will be exalted in the earth."

Lay up for your - selves treas - ures in hea - ven, says the Lord.

Audite haec, omnes

- 1 Hear this, all you peoples;
hearken, all you who dwell in the world, *
you of high degree and low, rich and poor / together.
- 2 My mouth shall speak of wisdom, *
and my heart shall meditate on understanding.
- 3 I will incline my ear to a proverb *
and set forth my riddle up/on the harp.
- 4 Why should I be afraid in evil days, *
when the wickedness of those at my heels / surrounds me,

- 5 The wickedness of those who put their trust in their góods, *
and boast of their / great ríches?
- 6 We can never ransom ourselvés, *
or deliver to God the price / of óur life;
- 7 For the ransom of our life is só great, *
that we should never have enough / to páy it,
- 8 In order to live for ever and éver, *
and never / see thé grave.
- 9 For we see that the wise die also;
like the dull and stupid they pérish *
and leave their wealth to those who / come áfter them.
- 10 Their graves shall be their homes for ever,
their dwelling places from generation to generátion, *
though they call the lands after / their ówn names.
- 11 Even though honored, they cannot live for éver; *
they are like the beasts / that pérish.
- 12 Such is the way of those who foolishly trust in themsélvés, *
and the end of those who delight in / their ówn words.
- 13 Like a flock of sheep they are destined to die;
Death is their shépherd; *
they go down straight/way tó the grave.
- 14 Their form shall wáste away, *
and the land of the dead / shall bé their home.
- 15 But God will ransom mý life; *
he will snatch me from / the grásp of death.
- 16 Do not be envious when some become rích, *

Psalm 52 Quid gloriaris?

Tone V.1

- 1 You tyrant, why do you boast of wíckedness *
against the gódly áll day long?
- 2 You plot ruin;
your tongue is like a sharpened rázor, *
O worker óf decéption.
- 3 You love evil more than góod *
and lying more than spéaking thé truth.
- 4 You love all words that húrť, *
O yóu decéitful tongue.
- 5 Oh, that God would demolish you útterly, *
topple you, and snatch you from your dwelling,
and root you out of the lánd of the líving!
- 6 The righteous shall see and trémble, *
and they shall láugh at him, sáying,

8 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God;*
I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

9 I will give you thanks for what yóu have done * and declare the goodness of your Name in the presence óf the gódlý. [Ant.]

Dixit insipiens

Tone VII.3

2 God looks down from héaven upón us all,*
to see if there is any who is wise,
if there is óne who seeks áfter God.

- 3 Every one has proved faithless;
all alike have turned bad; *
there is none who does good; no, not one.
- 4 Have they no knowledge, those évildóers *
who eat up my people like bread
and do not call upon God?
- 5 See how greatly they tremble,
such trémbling as néver was; *
for God has scattered the bones of the enemy;
they are put to shame, because Gód has rejected them.
- 6 Oh, that Israel's deliverance would come out of Zíon! *
when God restores the fortunes of his people
Jacob will rejoice and Ísraél be glad. [Ant.]

- 3 All the earth bows down before you, *
sings to you, sings out your Name."
- 4 Come now and see the works of God, *
how wonderful he is in his doing toward all people.
- 5 He turned the sea into dry land,
so that they went through the water on foot, *
and there we rejoiced in him.
- 6 In his might he rules for ever;
his eyes keep watch over the nations; *
let no rebel rise up against him.
- 7 Bless our God, you peoples; *
make the voice of his praise to be heard;
- 8 Who holds our souls in life, *

- 4 Let the nations be glad and síng for joy, *
for you judge the peoples with equity
and guide all the na/tions upón earth.
- 5 Let the peoples praise you, Ó God; *
let all the / peoples práise you.
- 6 The earth has brought forth her íncrease; *
may God, our own God, give / us his bléssing.
- 7 May God give us his bléssing, * and may all the ends of the earth / stand in áwe of him. [Ant.]

Psalm 68*Exsurgat DeusTone VII.3*

- 1 Lèt Göd arise, and let his énemies bé scattered; *
let those who hate him flée befóre him.
- 2 Let them vanish like smoke when the wind d rives it áway; *
as the wax melts at the fire, so let the wicked perish at the présence óf God.
- 3 But let the righteous be glad and re jóice befóre God; *
let them also be mérry and jóyful.
- 4 Sing to God, sing praises to his Name;
exalt him who rides upon thé heavens; *
YAHWEH is his Name, re jóice befóre him!

- 5 Father of orphans, defēder of wídoms, *
God in his holy hábitation!
- 6 God gives the solitary a home and brings forth prisoners into fréedom;*
but the rebels shall live in dry pláces.
- 7 O God, when you went forth before your péople, *
when you máched through the wílderness,
- 8 The earth shook, and the skies poured down rain,
at the presence of God, the Gód of Sínai, *
at the presence of God, the Gód of Ísrael.
- 9 You sent a gracious rain, O God, upón your inhéritance; *
you refreshed the land when it was weáry.
- 10 Your people fóund their hóme in it; *
in your goodness, O God, you have made províson fór the poor.
- 11 The Lórd gave thé word; *
great was the company of women who bóre the tídings:
- 12 “Kings with their armies are fléeing áway; *
the women at home are dívíding thé spoils.”
- 13 Though you lingered amóng the shéepfolds, *
you shall be like a dove whose wings are covered with silver,
whose féathers are like green gold.
- 14 When the Almighty scátered kings, *
it was like snow fálling in Zálmon.
- 15 O mighty mountain, O híll of Bashan! *
O rugged mountain, O híll of Bashan!
- 16 Why do you look with envy, O rugged mountain,
at the hill which God chóse for his résting place? *
truly, the LORD will dwéll there for éver.
- 17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand,
even thóusands of thóusands; *
the Lord comes in hóliness fróm Sinai.

- 18 You have gone up on high and led captivity captive;
you have received gifts even from your enemies,*
that the LORD God might dwell among them.
- 19 Blessed be the Lord day by day,*
the God of our salvation, who bears our burdens.
- 20 He is our God, the God of our salvation;*
God is the LORD, by whom we escape death.
- 21 God shall crush the heads of his enemies,*
and the hairy scalp of those who go on still in their wickedness.
- 22 The LORD has said, "I will bring them back from Bashan;*
I will bring them back from the depths of the sea;
- 23 That your foot may be dipped in blood,*
the tongues of your dogs in the blood of your enemies."
- 24 They see your procession, O God,*
your procession into the sanctuary, my God and my King.
- 25 The singers go before, musicians follow after,*
in the midst of maidens playing upon the hand-drums.
- 26 Bless God in the congregation;*
bless the LORD, you that are of the fountain of Israel.
- 27 There is Benjamin, least of the tribes, at the head;
the princes of Judah in a company;*
and the princes of Zebulon and Naphtali.
- 28 Send forth your strength, O God;*
establish, O God, what you have wrought for us.
- 29 —Kings shall bring gifts to you,*
for your temple's sake at Jerusalem.
- 30 Rebuke the wild beast of the reeds,*
and the peoples, a herd of wild bulls with its calves.

- 31 Trample down those who lúst after sílver; *
scatter the peoples thát delíght in war.
- 32 Let tribute be bróught out of Égypt; *
let Ethiopia stretch óut her hánds to God.
- 33 Sing to God, O kíngdoms óf the earth; *
sing práises tó the Lord.
- 34 He rides in the heavens, the áncient héavens; *
he sends forth his vóice, his míghty voice.
- 35 Ascribe pówer tó God; *
his majesty is over Israel;
his stréngth is ín the skies.
- 36 How wonderful is God in his hóly pláces! *
the God of Israel giving strength and power to his people!
Bléssèd bé God! [Ant.]

Psalm 69*Salvum me facTone III.4*

- 1 Save mĕ, O God,
for the waters have risen úp to mŷ neck.*
I am sinking in deep mire,
and there is no firm ground / for mŷ feet.
- 2 I have come ínto deep wáters,*
and the torrent wash/es óver me.
- 3 I have grown weary with my crying;
my thróat is íinflamed;*
my eyes have failed from look/ing f'or my God.
- 4 Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head
my lying foes who would destróy me are mĭghty.*
Must I then give back what / I néver stole?
- 5 O God, you knów my f'oolishness,*
and my faults are not hid/den fróm you.

- 6 Let not those who hope in you be put to shame through
 mé, Lord GÓD öf hosts; *
 let not those who seek you be disgraced because of me, O God / of Ísrael.
- 7 Surely, for your sake have I súffered réproach, *
 and shame has co/vered my face.
- 8 I have become a stranger tó my own kîndred, *
 an alien to my mo/ther's children.
- 9 Zeal for your house has éaten më up; *
 the scorn of those who scorn you has fallen / upón me.
- 10 I humbled myself with fásting, *
 but that was turned / to my reproach.
- 11 I put on sáck-cloth álso, *
 and became a byword / amóng them.
- 12 Those who sit at the gate múrmur agáînst me, *
 and the drunkards make songs a/bóut me.
- But as for me, this is my práyer tö you, *
 at the time you / have sét, O LORD:
- 14 "In your great mércy, Ö God, *

- 17 Answer me, O LÓRD, for your lóve ïs kind; *
 in your great compas/sion, túrn to me."
- 18 "Hide not your fáce from your sérvant; *
 be swift and answer me, for I / am ín distress.
- 19 Draw near to mé and redéëm me; *
 because of my enemies / delíver me.

- 20 You know my reproach, my sháme, and my díshönor; *
my adversaries are all / in yóur sight."
- 21 Reproach has broken my heart, and it cánnöt bé healed; *
I looked for sympathy, but there was none,
for comforters, but I could / find nó one.
- 22 They gáve me gáll tö eat, *
and when I was thirsty, they gave me vine/gar tó drink.
- 23 Let the table befóre them bé ä trap *
and their sa/cred féasts a snare.
- 24 Let their eyes be darkened, that théy may nót see, *
and give them continual trem/bling ín their loins.
- 25 Pour out your indignátion upöñ them, *
and let the fierceness of your anger o/vertáke them.
- 26 Let their cámp be désölate, *
and let there be none to dwell / in théir tents.
- 27 For they persecute hímm whom you háve strícken *
and add to the pain of those / whom yóu have pierced.
- 28 Lay to their charge gúilt upóñ guilt, *
and let them not receive your vin/dicátion.
- 29 Let them be wiped out of the bóok of the líving *
and not be written among / the ríghteous.
- 30 As for me, I am afflícted and íñ pain; *
your help, O God, will lift / me úp on high.
- 31 I will praise the Náme of Gód ín song; *
I will proclaim his greatness with / thanksgíving.
- 32 This will please the LORD more than an óffering of 'öxen, *
more than bullocks / with hórns and hoofs.

- 33 The afflicted shall sée and bë glad; *
you who seek God, / your héart shall live.
- 34 For the LORD listens tó the nēedy, *
and his prisoners he / does nó despise.
- 35 Let the héavens and the éarth präise him, *
the seas and all / that móves in them;
- 36 For God will save Zion and rebuild the cíties of Júdah; *

In Easter Season

You re - store my life; hal - le - lu - jah.

On other Sundays and Weekdays

You are my hope, O Lord GOD; my con - fi - dence since I was young.

- 1 In yôu, O LORD, have I táken réfuge; *
let me néver bé ashamed.
- 2 In your righteousness, deliver mé and sét me free; *
incline your ear to mé and sáve me.
- 3 Be my strong rock, a cástle to kéep me safe; *
you are my crág and my stróngthold.
- 4 Deliver me, my God, from the hánd of the wícked, *
from the clutches of the evildoer ánd the oppréssor.
- 5 For you are my hópe, O Lórd GOD, *
my confidence sínce I wás young.
- 6 I have been sustained by you ever since I was born;
from my mother's womb yóu have béen my strength; *
my praise shall be álways óf you.
- 7 I have become a pórtent to mány; *
but you are my réfuge ánd my strength.
- 8 Let my mouth be fúll of yóur praise *
and your glory áll the dáy long.
- 9 Do not cast me óff in my óld age; *
forsake me nó't when my stréngth fails.
- 10 For my enemies are tálking agáinst me, *
and those who lie in wait for my life take cóunsel togéther.
- 11 They say, "God has forsaken him;
go after him' and séize him; *
because there is nóne who wíll save."
- 12 O God, bé not fár from me; *
come quickly to hélp me, Ó my God.

- 13 Let those who set themselves against me be put to sháme and bé disgraced; *
let those who seek to do me evil be covered with scórn and réproach.
- 14 But I shall always wáit in pátience, *
and shall práise you móre and more.
- 15 My mouth shall recount your mighty acts
and sáving deeds áll day long; *
though I cannot know the númer óf them.
- 16 I will begin with the mighty wórks of the Lórd GOD; *
I will recall your ríghteousness, yóurs alone.
- 17 O God, you have taught me sínce I wás young, *
and to this day I tell of your wónderfúl works.
- 18 And now that I am old and gray-headed, O God, dó not forsáke me, *
till I make known your strength to this generation and your power to áll who áre to come.
- 19 Your righteousness, O God, réaches to thé heavens; *
you have done great things;
who is líke you, Ó God?
- 20 You have showed me great troubles ánd advérsities, *
but you will restore my life
and bring me up again from the deep pláces óf the earth.
- 21 You stréngthen me móre and more; *
you enfóld and cómfort me,
- 22 Therefore I will praise you upon the lyre for your fáithfulness, Ó my God; *
I will sing to you with the harp, O Holy Óne of Ísrael.
- 23 My lips will sing with joy wén I pláy to you, *
and so will my soul, which yóu have rédeemed.
- 24 My tongue will proclaim your ríghteousness áll day long, *
for they are ashamed and disgraced who sóught to dó me harm. [Ant.]

- 13 He shall have pity on the lówly ánd poor; *
he shall preserve the lives / of the nẻedy.
- 14 He shall redeem their lives from opprẻssion and víolence, *
and dear shall their blood / be in hí's sight.
- 15 Long may he live!
and may there be given to him góld from Arábia; *
may prayer be made for him always,
and may they bless him / all the dáy long.
- 16 May there be abundance of grain on the earth,
growing thick even ón the hílltops; *
may its fruit flourish like Lebanon,
and its grain like / grass upón the earth.
- 17 May his Name remain for ever,
and be established as lóng as the sún endures; *
may all the nations bless themselves in him and / call him blẻssed.

18 Blessed be the Lord GOD, the Góð of Ísrael,*

Psalm 73

Quam bonus Israel!

Tone II.1

- 1 Truly, God is good to Ísrael,*
to those who / are púre in heart.
- 2 But as for me, my feet had néarly slipped; *
I had almost tripped / and fálleñ;
- 3 Because I envied the próud *
and saw the prosperity of / the wícked:
- 4 For they suffer nó pain,*
and their bodies / are sléek and sound;
- 5 In the misfortunes of others they háve no share; *
they are not afflicted / as óthers are;
- 6 Therefore they wear their pride like a nécklace *
and wrap their violence about / them like a cloak.
- 7 Their iniquity comes from gróss minds,*
and their hearts overflow / with wícked thoughts.

- 8 They scoff and speak maliciously; *
out of their haughtiness they plan / oppréssion.
- 9 They set their mouths against the héavens, *
and their evil speech / runs thróugh the world.
- 10 And so the people túrn to them *
and find / in thém no fault.
- 11 They say, "How should Gód know? *
is there knowledge in / the Móst High?"
- 12 So then, these are the wícked; *
always at ease, they / incréase their wealth.
- 13 In vain have I kept my héart clean, *
and washed my hands / in ínnocence.
- 14 I have been afflicted áll day long, *
and punished ev/ery mórning.
- 15 Had I gone on speaking thís way, *
I should have betrayed the generation of / your éhildren.
- 16 When I tried to understánd these things, *
it was / too hárd for me;
- 17 Until I entered the sanctuary of Gód *
and discerned the end of / the wícked.
- 18 Surely, you set them in slippery pláces; *
you cast them down / in rúin.
- 19 Oh, how suddenly do they come to destrúction, *
come to an end, and perish / from térror!
- 20 Like a dream when one awakens, O Lórd, *
when you arise you will make their im/age vánish.
- 21 When my mind became embittered, *
I was sorely wound/ed ín my heart.

- 22 I was stupid and had no understanding; *
I was like a brute beast in / your présence.
- 23 Yet I am always with yóu; *
you hold me by / my ríght hand.
- 24 You will guide me by your cóunsel, *
and afterwards receive me / with glóry.
- 25 Whom have I in heaven but yóu? *
and having you I desire nothing / upón earth.
- 26 Though my flesh and my heart should wáste away, *
God is the strength of my heart and my portion / for éver.
- 27 Truly, those who forsake you will pérish; *
you destroy all who are / unfáithful.
- 28 But it is good for me to be near Gód; *
I have made the Lord GOD / my réfuge.
- 29 I will speak of áll your works *
in the gates of the city / of Zíon. [Ant.]

Tone IV.4

- 1 O Göd, why have you ut/terly cást us off? *
why is your wrath so hot against the / sheep of your pásture?
- 2 Remember your congregation that you / purchased lóng ago, *
the tribe you redeemed to be your inheritance,
and / Mount Zion where you dwell.
- 3 Turn your steps toward the / endless rúins; *
the enemy has laid waste everything in / your sanctuáry.
- 4 Your adversaries roared / in your hólý place; *
they set up their banners as / tokens of víctory.
- 5 They were like men coming up with axes / to a gróve of trees; *
they broke down all your carved work with / hatchets and hámmers.

- 6 They set fire / to your hóly place; *
they defiled the dwelling-place of your Name / and razed it tó the ground.
- 7 They said to themselves, "Let us destroy them / altogéther." *
They burned down all the meeting-pla/ces of God ín the land.
- 8 There are no signs for us to see;
there / is no próphet left; *
there is not one among / us who knows hów long.
- 9 How long, O God, will the / adversáry scoff? *
will the enemy blaspheme / your Name for éver?
- 10 Why do / you draw báck your hand? *
why is your right hand hid/den in your bósom?
- 11 Yet God is my / King from áncient times, *
victorious / in the midst óf the earth.
- 12 You divided the sea / by your míght *
and shattered the heads of the dragons / upon the wáters;
- 13 You crushed the heads / of Leviáthan *
and gave him to the people of / the desert fór food.
- 14 You split open / spring and tórrent; *
you dried up ev/er-flowing rívers.
- 15 Yours is the day, yours al/so the níght; *
you established / the moon and thé sun.
- 16 You fixed all the / boundaries óf the earth; *
you made both / summer and wínter.
- 17 Remember, O LORD, how the en/emý scóffed, *
how a foolish / people despised your Name.
- 18 Do not hand over the life of your / dove to wíld beasts; *
never forget / the lives of yóur poor.
- 19 Look up/on your cóvenant; *
the dark places of the earth / are haunts of víolence.

- 20 Let not the oppressed / turn away ashamed; *
let the poor / and needy praise your Name.
- 21 Arise, O / God, maintain your cause; *

- 4 How glorious you are! *
more splendid than the everlasting mountains!
- 5 The strong of heart have been despoiled;
they sink into sleep; *
none of the warriors can lift a hand.
- 6 At your rebuke, O God of Jacob, *
both horse and rider lie stunned.
- 7 What terror you inspire! *
who can stand before you when you are angry?
- 8 From heaven you pronounced judgment; *
the earth was afraid and was still;
- 9 When God rose up to judgment *
and to save all the oppressed of the earth.
- 10 Truly, wrathful Edom will give you thanks, *
and the remnant of Hamath will keep your feasts.
- 11 Make a vow to the LORD your God and keep it; *

Psalm 78 Part 1 Attendite, popule

Tone I.2

- 1 Hear mÿ teaching, Ó my péople; *
incline your ears to the / words of mÿ möuth.
- 2 I will open my móuth in a párable; *
I will declare the myster/ies of áncient tîmes.
- 3 That which we have heard and known,
and what our fórefathers háve told us, *
we will not / hide from thér children.
- 4 We will recount to generations to come
the praiseworthy deeds and the pówer of the LORD, *
and the wonderful / works he háa done.

- 5 He gave his decrees to Jacob and established a l^áw for Ísrael, *
which he commanded them to / teach their ch^íldrën;
- 6 That the generations to come might know,
and the children y^ét unborn; *
that they in their turn might tell it / to their ch^íldrën;
- 7 So that they might p^út their tr^úst in God, *
and not forget the deeds of God,
but keep / his comm^ándm^énts;
- 8 And not be like their forefathers,
a stubborn and rebellious géner^átion, *
a generation whose heart was not steadfast,
and whose spirit was not / faithf^úl t^ö G^öd.
- 9 The people of Ephraim, árm^éd with th^é bow, *
turned back in the / day of báttl^é;
- 10 They did not keep the c^óven^ánt of God, *
and refused to / walk in h^ís l^áw;
- 11 They forg^ót what h^é had done, *
and the wonders / he had sh^öwn th^ém.
- 12 He worked marvels in the s^íght of their f^órefathers, *
in the land of Egypt, in the / field of Z^öäi.
- 13 He split open the sea and lét them páss through; *
he made the waters / stand up l^íke wálls.
- 14 He led them w^íth a cl^óud by day, *
and all the night through / with a gl^ów of fire.
- 15 He split the hard rocks ín the w^ílderness *
and gave them drink as / from the gr^éat d^éep.
- 16 He brought streams óut of th^é cliff, *
and the waters gushed / out like r^ív^érs.

- 17 But they went on s'inning agáinst him, *
rebelling in the desert a/gainst the Móst H'gh.
- 18 They tested Gód in th'eir hearts, *
demanding food / for their cräv'ing.
- 19 They ráiled against Gód and said, *
“Can God set a table / in the w'ildernëss?
- 20 True, he struck the rock, the waters gushed out, and the gullies óverflowed; *
but is he able to give bread
or to provide meat / for his p'ëoplë?”
- 21 When the LORD heard this, hé was fúll of wrath; *
a fire was kindled against Jacob,
and his anger mounted / against Ísraël;
- 22 For th'ey had no fáith in God, *
nor did they put their trust / in his sáving pöwer.
- 23 So he commáded the clóuds above *
and opened the / doors of h'éävën.
- 24 He rained down manna upón them tó eat *
and gave them / grain from h'éävën.
- 25 So mortals ate the bréad of ángels; *
he provided / for them fóöd enöugh.
- 26 He caused the east wind to blów in the héavens *
and led out the / south wind bý his m'ight.
- 27 He rained down flesh upón them líke dust *
and wingèd birds like the / sand of th'ë s'ëa.
- 28 He let it fall in the m'idst of th'eir camp *
and round a/bout their d'wëllings.
- 29 So they áte and were w'ëll filled, *
for he gave / them what th'ëy cräved.
- 30 But they did not stóp their cráving, *
though the food was / still in th'eir möuths.

- 31 So God's anger móunted agáinst them; *
he slew their strongest men
and laid low the / youth of Ísraël.
- 32 In spite of all this, they wént on sínning *
and had no faith in his / wonderfúl wörks.
- 33 So he brought their days to an énd like á breath *
and their years in / sudden térrör.
- 34 Whenever he slew them, théy would séek him, *
and repent, and dili/gently séarch for Göd.
- 35 They would remember that Gód was théir rock, *
and the Most High God / their redéemër.
- 36 But they flattered him with théir mouths *
and lied to / him with théir töngues.
- 37 Their heart was not stéadfast towárd him, *
and they were not faithful / to his cövenänt.
- 38 But he was so merciful that he forgave their sins
and díd not destróy them; *
many times he held back his anger
and did not permit his / wrath to bë röused.
- 39 For he remembered that théy were búť flesh, *
a breath that goes forth / and does nóť retürn. [Ant.]

Psalm 78 Part 2

Quoties exacerbaverunt

Tone I.7

40 How öften the people disobeyed him ín the wílderness *
and offended him / in the désèrt!

41 Again and agáin they tétempted God *
and provoked the Holy / One of Ísraëĭ.

42 They did not remémber his pówer *
in the day when he ransomed them / from the 'ënemÿ;

43 How he wrought his 'signs in Égypt *
and his omens in the / field of Zöäñ.

44 He turned their rívers ínto blood, *
so that they could not / drink of thëir strëäms.

45 He sent swarms of flies amóng them, which áte them up, *
and frogs, / which deströyed thëm.

- 46 He gave their crops to the cáterpíllar, *
the fruit of their toil / to the lócüst.
- 47 He kílled their v́ines with hail *
and their syc/amores ẃith fröst.
- 48 He delivered their cáttle to háilstones *
and their livestock / to hot th́underbólt.
- 49 He poured out upon them his blázing ánger: *
fury, indignation, and distress,
a troop of de/stroying ángëls.
- 50 He gave full rein to his anger;
he did not spáre their sóuls from death; *
but delivered their / lives to thě plägue.
- 51 He struck down all the fírstborn of Égypt, *
the flower of manhood in the / dwellings óf Häm.
- 52 He led out his péople líke sheep *
and guided them in the wil/derness líke a flöck.
- 53 He led them to safety, and théy were nó afraid; *
but the sea over/whelmed their énemíes.
- 54 He brought them tó his hólý land, *
the mountain his / right hand hád wön.
- 55 He drove out the Canaanites before them
and apportioned an inheritance tó them bý lot; *
he made the tribes of Israel to / dwell in théir tēnts.
- 56 But they tested the Most High Gód, and defíed him, *
and did not keep / his commándmēnts.
- 57 They turned away and were disloyal líke their fáthers; *
they were undependable / like a wárpēd böw.
- 58 They grieved h́im with their h́ill-altars *
and provoked his displeasure / with their ídols.

- 59 When God heard this, he was ángry *
and utterly re/jected Ísraël.
- 60 He forsook the sh́rine at Sh́iloh, *
the tabernacle where he had lived a/mong his p'öplë.
- 61 He delivered the ark into captívity, *
his glory into the / adversáry's häänd.
- 62 He gave his p'éople tó the sword *
and was angered against / his inhéritäñce.
- 63 The fire consumed their yóung men; *
there were no wedding songs / for their máidëñs.
- 64 Their priésts fell bý the sword, *
and their widows made no / lamentätüñ.
- 65 Then the LORD wóke as though fróm sleep, *
like a war/rior refréshed with wíne.
- 66 He struck his enemies ón the báckside *
and put them / to perpétual shäme.
- 67 He rejected the tént of Jóseph *
and did not choose the / tribe of Éphräim;
- 68 He chose instead the tríbe of Júdah *
and Mount / Zion, whích he löved.
- 69 He built his sanctuary like the héights of héaven, *
like the earth which he foun/ded for 'ëvër.
- 70 He chose Dávid his s'ervant, *
and took him away / from the sh'écpfölds.
- 71 He brought him from fólloving thé ewes, *
to be a shepherd over Jacob his people
and over Israel / his inhéritäñce.
- 72 So he shepherded them with a fáithful and trúe heart * and guided them with the skillful/ness of híis häänds. [Ant.]

Antiphon

Help us, O God our Sav - ior, and for - give us our sins.

Psalm 79*Deus, veneruntTone VII.1*

- 1 Ö Göð, the heathen have come into your inheritance;
they have profaned your hóly témples; *
they have made Jerusalem a héap of rúblë.
- 2 They have given the bodies of your servants as food for
the bírds of thé air, *
and the flesh of your faithful ones to the béasts of thé fiëld.
- 3 They have shed their blood like water on every síde of Jerúsalem, *
and there was nó one to búry thëm.
- 4 We have become a repróach to our néighbors, *
an object of scorn and derision to thóse aróund üs.
- 5 How long will you be ángry, Ó LORD? *
will your fury blaze like fíre for évër?
- 6 Pour out your wrath upon the heathen who háve not knówn you * and upon the kingdoms that have not cállèd upon yóur Náme.
- 7 For they háve devoured Jácob *
and made his dwélling á ruín.
- 8 Remember not our past sins;
let your compassion be swíft to méet us; *
for we have been bróught verý löw.
- 9 Help us, O God our Savior, for the glóry óf your Name; *
deliver us and forgive us our sins, fór your Náme's säke.

- 10 Why should the heathen say, “Whéré is théir God?” *
 Let it be known among the heathen and in our sight
 that you avenge the shedding óf your sérvants’ blöod.
- 11 Let the sorrowful sighing of the prisoners cóme befóre you, *
 and by your great might spare those whó are condénned to díe.
- 12 May the revilings with which they revíled you, Ó Lord, *
 return seven-fold into their bósöms.
- 13 For we are your people and the shéep of your pásture; *
 we will give you thanks for ever and show forth your práise from áge to äge. [Ant.]

Psalm 80

Qui regis Israel

Tone IV.4

- 1 Hear, Ö Shepherd of Israel, leading / Joseph líke a flock; *
 shine forth, you that are enthroned / upon the chérubim.
- 2 In the presence of Ephraim, Benjamin, / and Manásseh, *
 stir up your strength / and come to hélp us.
- 3 Restore / us, O Gód of hosts; *
 show the light of your counte/nance, and we sháll be saved.

- 4 —/O LORD GóD of hosts,*
how long will you be angered
despite the / prayers of your péople?
- 5 You have fed them / with the bréad of tears; *
you have given / them bowls of téars to drink.
- 6 You have made us the derision / of our néighbors,*
and our en/emies laugh ús to scorn.
- 7 Restore / us, O GóD of hosts; *
show the light of your counte/nance, and we sháll be saved.
- 8 You have brought a vine / out of Égypt; *
you cast out the / nations and plánted it.
- 9 You pre/pared the gróund for it; *
it / took root and fílléd the land.
- 10 The mountains were covered / by its shádw *
and the towering / cedar trees bý its boughs.
- 11 You stretched out its / tendrils tó the Sea *
and its bran/ches to the Ríver.
- 12 Why have you / broken dówn its wall, *
so that all who / pass by pluck óff its grapes?
- 13 The wild boar of the for/est has rávaged it, *
and the beasts of the field / have grazed upón it.
- 14 Turn now, O God of hosts, look down from heaven;
be/hold and ténd this vine; *
preserve what your / right hand has plánted.
- 15 They burn it with / fire like rúbbish; *
at the rebuke of your counte/nance let them pérish.
- 16 Let your hand be upon the man / of your ríght hand, *
the son of man you have / made so strong fór yourself.

17 And so will we never / turn away from you; *
give us life, that we may / call upon your Name.

18 Restore us, / O LORD Góð of hosts; * show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved. [Ant.]

Antiphon

Sing with joy to God our strength, and raise a loud shout to the God of Ja - cob. †

Psalm 81 Exultate Deo

Tone I.1

1 Sing with—joy to Góð our strength *
and raise a loud shout to the / God of Jácob.

2 †Raise ä song and sóund the tímbrél, *
the mer/ry harp, äñd the lyre.

3 Blow the ram's-horn á the néw moon, *
and at the full moon, the / day of óür feast.

4 For this is a státute for Ísrael, *
a law of the / God of Jácob.

5 He laid it as a solemn chárge upon Jóseph, *
when he came out of the / land of Égypt.

6 I heard an unfamíliar voice sáyíng, *
"I eased his shoulder from the burden;
his hands were set free from / bearing thë load."

- 7 You called on me in trouble, and I saved you; *
I answered you from the secret place of thunder
and tested you at the waters of Meribah.
- 8 Hear, O my people, and I will admonish you: *
O Israel, if you would but / listen to me!
- 9 There shall be no strange god among you; *
you shall not worship a foreign god.
- 10 I am the LORD your God,
who brought you out of the land of Egypt and said, * “Open your mouth wide, and / I will fill it.”
- 11 And yet my people did not hear my voice, *
and Israel would / not obey me.
- 12 So I gave them over to the stubbornness of their hearts, *
to follow their / own devices.
- 13 Oh, that my people would listen to me! *
that Israel would / walk in my ways!
- 14 I should soon subdue their enemies *
and turn my / hand against their foes.
- 15 Those who hate the LORD would crouch before him, *
and their punishment would / last for ever.
- 16 But Israel would I feed with the finest wheat * and satisfy him with / honey from the rock. [Ant.]

Antiphon

A - rise, O God, and rule the earth.

Psalm 82*Deus stetitTone IV.4*

- 1 God *tā*kes his stand in the coun/cil of *hē*aven; *
he gives judgment / in the midst *ó*f the gods:
- 2 “How long will you / judge un*j*ústly, *
and show fa/vor to the *w*icked?
- 3 Save the weak / and the *ó*rphan; *
defend the / humble and *né*edy;
- 4 Rescue the / weak and the é poor; *
deliver them from the pow/er of the *w*icked.
- 5 They do not know, neither do they understand;
they go a/bout in *dá*rkness; *
all the foundations of / the earth are *shá*ken.
- 6 Now I say / to you, ‘*Y*ou are gods, *
and all of you chil/dren of the *Mó*st High;
- 7 Nevertheless, you shall / die like *mó*rtals, *
— / and fall like *á*ny prince.’”
- 8 Arise, O / God, and *rú*le the earth, *
for you shall take / all nations *fó*r your own. [Ant.]

Antiphon

They shall know that you, whose Name is YAH - WEH, are the Most High

o - ver all the earth.

Psalm 83

Deus, quis similis?

Tone IV.5

- 1 O Göd, do / not be sílent; *
do not keep still / nor hold your péace, O Göd;
- 2 For your enemies / are in túmult, *
and those who hate you / have lifted úp their hëads.
- 3 They take secret counsel a/gainst your péople *
and plot a/gainst those whom yóu protëct.
- 4 They have said, "Come, let us wipe them out from
a/mong the nátions; *
let the name of Israel be / remembered nó möre."
- 5 They have con/spired togéther; *
they have made an al/liance agáinst yöu:
- 6 The tents of Edom / and the Íshmaelites; *
the Moab/ites and the Hágarënes;
- 7 Gebal, and Am/mon, and Ámalek; *
the Philistines / and those who dwéll in Tÿre.
- 8 The Assyrians al/so have jóined them, *
and have come to help / the people óf Löt.
- 9 Do to them as you / did to Mídian, *
to Sisera, and to Jabin at the / river of Kíshön:

- 10 They were de/stroyed at Éndor; *
they became / like dung upón the gröund.
- 11 Make their leaders like Or/eb and Zeëb, *
and all their commanders like Ze/bah and Zalmúnnä,
- 12 Who said, “Let us / take for óurselves *
the fields of God / as our posséssiön.”
- 13 O my God, make / them like whirling dust *
and like / chaff before thé wind;
- 14 Like fire that burns / down a fórest, *
like the flame / that sets mountáins abläze.
- 15 Drive them / with your témpet *
and terri/fy them with yóur störm;
- 16 Cover their fa/ces with sháme, O LORD, *
that / they may seek yóur Näme.
- 17 Let them be disgraced and terri/fied for éver; *
let them be put to con/fusion and pérish.
- 18 Let them know that you, whose / Name is YÁHWEH, * you alone are the Most / High over áll the ëarth. [Ant.]

 by the side of your altars, O LORD of hosts,
 my Kíng and mý God.

- 3 Happy are they who dwell in your house! *
they will always be praising you.
- 4 Happy are the people whose strength is in you! *
whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' way.
- 5 Those who go through the desolate valley will find
it a place of springs, *
for the early rains have covered it with pools of water.
- 6 They will climb from height to height, *
and the God of gods will reveal himself in Zion.
- 7 LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer; *
hearken, O God of Jacob.
- 8 Behold our defender, O God; *
and look upon the face of your Anointed.
- 9 For one day in your courts is better than a thousand in my own room, *
and to stand at the threshold of the house of my God
than to dwell in the tents of the wicked.
- 10 For the LORD God is both sun and shield; *
he will give grace and glory;
- 11 No good thing will the LORD withhold *
from those who walk with integrity.
- 12 —O LORD of hosts, *
happy are they who put their trust in you! [Ant.]

- 2 Let my prayer enter ínto your préseñce; *
incline your ear to my / lamentätüöh.
- 3 For I am fúll of tróuble; *
my life is at the / brink of thé gräve.
- 4 I am counted among those who go dÓwn to thé Pit; *
I have become like one / who has nÖ strēngth;
- 5 —Lóst amóng the dead, *
like the slain / who lie ín the gräve,
- 6 Whom you remémber nÓ more, *
for they are / cut off fröm your häänd.
- 7 You have laid me in the dépths of thé Pit, *
in dark places, / and in thé abyßs.

- 8 Your anger weighs upón me héavily,*
and all your great waves / overw'hélm mē.
- 9 You have put my friends far from me;
you have made me to bé abhórred by them;*
I am in prison and / cannot gét frēē.
- 10 My sight has failed me becaúse of tróuble;*
LORD, I have called upon you daily;
I have stretched / out my hánds to yōü.
- 11 Do you work wónders fór the dead? *
will those who have died stand / up and gíve you thänks?
- 12 Will your loving-kindness be decláred in thé grave? *
your faithfulness in the land / of destrúctiön?
- 13 Will your wonders be knówn in thé dark? *
or your righteousness in the country where all / is forgóttēn?
- 14 But as for me, O LORD, I crý to yóu for help;*
in the morning my prayer / comes befóre yōü.
- 15 LORD, why have yóu réjécted me? *
why have you hid/den your fáce from mē?
- 16 Ever since my youth, I have been wretched and át the póint of death;
I have borne your terrors / with a tróubled mīnd.
- 17 Your blazing anger has swépt ovér me;*
your terrors / have destróyed mē;
- 18 They surround me all dáy long líke a flood;*
they encompass / me on 'évry sīde.
- 19 My friend and my neighbor you have pút away from me,*
and darkness is my on/ly compánión. [Ant.]

89:1-18

On the Twelve Days of Christmas

He will say to me: "You are my Fa - ther"; hal - le - lu - jah.

In Easter Season

The Ho - ly One of Is - ra - el is our King, hal - le - lu - jah.

On other Sundays and Weekdays

Righ - teous - ness and jus - tice, O God, are the foun - da - tions of your throne.

Psalm 89 Part 1

Misericordias Domini

Tone V.1

- 1 Your love, O LORD, for ever will I sing; *
from age to age my mouth will proclaim your faithfulness.
- 2 For I am persuaded that your love is established for éver; *
you have set your faithfulness firmly in the héavens.
- 3 "I have made a covenant with my chósened one; *
I have sworn an oath to Dávid my sérvant:
- 4 'I will establish your line for éver, *
and preserve your throne for áll generátions.'"
- 5 The heavens bear witness to your wonders, O LÓRD, *
and to your faithfulness in the assembly óf the hólý ones;
- 6 For who in the skies can be compared to the LÓRD? *
who is like the LÓRD amóng the gods?

In Easter Season

I will es - tab - lish his line for ev - er, and his throne as the days of hea - ven, hal - le - lu - jah.

On other Sundays and Weekdays

I have sworn an oath to Da - vid my serv - ant; I will es - tab - lish his line

for ev - er.

Psalm 89 Part 2*Tunc locutus esTone I.1*

- 19 You spöke once in a vision and said to your fáithful péople: *
 "I have set the crown upon a warrior
 and have exalted one chosen out / of the péople.
- 20 I have found Dávid my sérvant; *
 with my holy oil have / I anöinted him.
- 21 My hánd will hóld him fast *
 and my / arm will máke him strong.
- 22 No enemy sháll decéive him, *
 nor any wicked / man bring hím down.
- 23 I will crush his fóes befóre him *
 and strike down / those who háte him.
- 24 My faithfulness and lóve shall bé with him, *
 and he shall be vic/torious thröugh my Name.

- 25 I shall make his dominion éxtend *
from the Great Sea / to the Ríver.
- 26 He will say to me, 'Yóu are my Fáther, *
my God, and the rock of / my salvátion.'
- 27 I will máke him my fírstborn *
and higher than the / kings of thě earth.
- 28 I will keep my love for hím for éver, *
and my covenant will / stand firm főr him.
- 29 I will establish his líne for éver *
and his throne as the / days of héäven."
- 30 "If his children forsáke my law, *
and do not walk according / to my jüdgments;
- 31 If they bréak my státutes *
and do not keep / my commändments;
- 32 I will punish their transgréssions wíth a rod *
and their ini/quities wíth the lash;
- 33 But I will not táke my lóve from him, *
nor let my faith/fulness pröve false.
- 34 I will not bréak my cóvenant, *
nor change what has gone / out of mý lips.
- 35 Once for all I have swórn by my hóliness: *
'I will not / lie to Dävid.
- 36 His line shall endúre for éver *
and his throne as the / sun beföre me;
- 37 It shall stand fast for évermore líke the moon, *
the abiding / witness íñ the sky."
- 38 But you have cast off and rejected yóur anóinted; *
you have be/come enráged at him.

- 39 You have broken your covenant wíth your sérvant, *
defiled his crown, and / hurled it tō the ground.
- 40 You have bréached all hís walls *
and laid his strong/holds in rüins.
- 41 All who pass bý despóil him; *
he has become the scorn / of his nēighbors.
- 42 You have exalted the ríght hand óf his foes *
and made all his / enemíes rejoice.
- 43 You have turned back the édge of hís sword *
and have not sustained / him in báttle.
- 44 You have put an énd to his spléndor *
and cast / his throne tō the ground.
- 45 You have cut short the dáy's of hís youth *
and have / covered hím with shame.
- 46 How long will you hide yourself, O LORD?
will you hide yourself for éver? *
how long will your / anger búrn like fire?
- 47 Remember, LÓRD, how short lífe is, *
how frail / you have máde all flesh.
- 48 Who can líve and nót see death? *
who can save himself from the / power 'óf the grave?
- 49 Where, Lord, are your loving-kindnesses óf old, *
which you promised David / in your fáithfulness?
- 50 Remember, Lord, how your sérvant ís mocked, *
how I carry in my bosom the taunts of / many pēoples,
- 51 The taunts your enemies háve hurled, Ó LORD, *
which they hurled at the heels of / your anóinted.
- 52 Blessed be the LÓRD for évermore! *
Amen, / I say, 'Ämen. [Ant.]

Psalm 90*Domine, refugiumTone VIII.1*

- 1 Lord, you have been our réfuge *
from one generation / to anóther.
- 2 Before the mountains were brought forth,
or the 'nd and the éarth were born, *
from age / to age yóu are God.
- 3 You turn us back to the dúst and say, *
"Go / back, O child of earth."
- 4 For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when ít is past * and like a / watch in thé night.
- 5 You sweep us away like a dréam; *
we fade away sud/denly like the grass.
- 6 In the morning it is green and flóurishes; *
in the evening it is dried / up and wíthered.

- 7 For we consume away in your displeásure; *
we are afraid because of your wrathful / indignátion.
- 8 Our iniquities you have set before you, *
and our secret sins in the light / of your cóuntenance.
- 9 When you are angry, all our dáy's are gone: *
we bring our years to an / end like á sigh.
- 10 The span of our life is seventy years,
perhaps in strength even éighty; *
yet the sum of them is but labor and sorrow,
for they pass away quick/ly and wé are gone.
- 11 Who regards the power of your wráth? *
who rightly fears your / indignátion?
- 12 So teach us to number our dáy's *
that we may apply our / hearts to wísdóm.
- 13 Return, O LORD; how long will you tárry? *
be gracious / to your sérvants.
- 14 Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the mórning; *
so shall we rejoice and be glad all the / days of óur life.
- 15 Make us glad by the measure of the days that you afflicted us * and the years in which we suf/fered advérsity.
- 16 Show your servants your wórks *
and your splendor / to their children.
- 17 May the graciousness of the LORD our God be upón us; *

Psalm 91*Qui habitatTone IV.4*

- 1 He whō dwells in the shelter / of the Mōst High, *
abides under the shadow / of the Almīghty.
- 2 He shall say to the LORD,
“You are my refuge / and my strōnghold, *
my God / in whom I pūt my trust.”
- 3 He shall deliver you from the snare / of the hūnter *
and from / the deadly péstilence.
- 4 He shall cover you with his pinions,
and you shall find refuge un/der his wíngs; *
his faithfulness shall be / a shield and búckler.
- 5 You shall not be afraid of any / terror bý night, *
nor of the / arrow that fliés by day;
- 6 Of the plague that stalks / in the dárkness, *
nor of the sickness that / lays waste at mīd-day.
- 7 A thousand shall fall at your side
and ten thousand / at your ríght hand, *
but it / shall not come néar you.

- 8 Your eyes have / only tó behold *
to see the re/ward of the wícked.
- 9 Because you have made the / LORD your réfuge, *
and the Most High / your habitátion,
- 10 There shall no evil hap/pen to yóu, *
neither shall any plague / come near your dwélling.
- 11 For he shall give his an/gels charge óver you, *
to / keep you in áll your ways.
- 12 They shall / bear you ín their hands, *
lest you dash / your foot agáinst a stone.
- 13 You shall tread upon the li/on and ádder; *
you shall trample the young lion and the ser/pent under yóur feet.
- 14 Because he is bound to me in love,
therefore will / I delíver him; *
I will protect him, / because he knóws my Name.
- 15 He shall call upon me, and / I will ánsver him; *
I am with him in trouble;
I will rescue him and / bring him to hónor.
- 16 With long life will I sat/isfy him, *

LORD, and of your faith - ful - ness in the night sea - son.

Psalm 92*Bonum est confiteriTone V.3*

- 1 It is a good thing to give thanks to the LÓRD, *
and to sing praises to your Náme, O Móst High;
- 2 To tell of your loving-kindness early in the mórning *
and of your faithfulness in thé night séason;
- 3 On the psaltery, and ón the lyre, *
and to the melódy óf the harp.
- 4 For you have made me glad by your ácts, O LORD; *
and I shout for joy because of the wórks of yóur hands.
- 5 LORD, how great are yóur works! *
your thóughts are véry deep.

- 6 The dullard does not know,
nor does the fool únderstand, *
that though the wicked grow like weeds,
and all the workers of iniquity flóurish,
- 7 They flourish only to be destroyed for éver; *
but you, O LORD, are exaltéd for évermore.
- 8 For lo, your enemies, O LORD,
lo, your enemies shall pérish, *
and all the workers of iniquity sháll be scátered.
- 9 But my horn you have exalted like the horns of wíld bulls; *
I am anointéd with frésh oil.
- 10 My eyes also gloat over my énemies, *
and my ears rejoice to hear the doom of
the wicked who rise úp agáinst me.
- 11 The righteous shall flourish like a pálm tree, *
and shall spread abroad like a cedár of Lébanon.
- 12 Those who are planted in the house of the LÓRD *
shall flourish in the cóurts of óur God;
- 13 They shall still bear fruit in óld age; *
they shall be gréen and súculent;
- 14 That they may show how upright the LÓRD is, *
my Rock, in whóm there ís no fault. [Ant.]

Psalm 94*Deus ultionumTone III.5*

- 1 O LÖRD—Gód of vëngeance, *
O God of vengeance, / show yóursëlf.
- 2 Rise up, O Júdge of thë world; *
give the arrogant / their júst desërts.
- 3 How long shall the wícked, 'Ö LORD, *
how long shall the wick/ed tríumph?
- 4 They bluster ín their ínsölence; *
all evildoers are full / of bóasting.

- 5 They crush your péople, 'Ö LORD, *
and afflict your cho/sen nátiön.
- 6 They murder the wídow and the stränger *
and put the or/phans tó dëath.
- 7 Yet they say, "The LÓRD does nót see, *
the God of Jacob takes / no nó'tice."
- 8 Consider well, you dullards amóng the pëople; *
when will you fools / under'stánd?
- 9 He that planted the ear, dóes he nót hear? *
he that formed the eye, / does hé not sée?
- 10 He who admonishes the nations, will hé not pünish? *
he who teaches all the world, has he / no knówlëdge?
- 11 The LORD knóws our húmänn thoughts; *
how like a puff / of wínd they äre.

- 14 For the LORD will not abándon his pëople, *
nor will he / forsáke his öwn.
- 15 For judgment wíll again bë just, *
and all the true of heart / will fóllo'w ít.
- 16 Who rose up for me agáinst the wícked? *
who took my part against the e/vildóërs?
- 17 If the LORD had not cóme to mý help, *
I should soon have dwelt in the land / of sílënce.
- 18 As often as I sáid, "My fóot häs slipped," *
your love, O LORD, / uphéld më.
- 19 When many cáres fill mý mind, *
your consolations / cheer mý söul.

- 20 Can a corrupt tribunal have ány párt with you, *
one which frames e/vil ínto lăw?
- 21 They conspire agáinst the life óf thë just *
and condemn the in/nocént to dëath.
- 22 But the LORD has becóme my stróngthold, *

Venite, exultemus

Tone II.1

- 1 Come, let us sing to the LÓRD; *
let us shout for joy to the Rock of our / salvátion.
- 2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgíving *
and raise a loud shout / to hím with psalms.
- 3 For the LORD is a gréat God, *
and a great King a/bove áll gods.

- 4 In his hand are the caverns of the éarth, *
and the heights of the hills are / his álso.
- 5 The sea is his, for he máde it, *
and his hands have molded / the drý land.
- 6 Come, let us bow down, and bénd the knee, *
and kneel before the LORD / our Máker.
- 7 For he is our God,
and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hánd. *
Oh, that today you would hear/ken tó his voice!
- 8 Harden not your hearts,
as your forebears did in the wílderness, *
at Meribah, and on that day at Massah,
when / they témped me.
- 9 They put me to the tést, *
though they / had séen my works.
- 10 Forty years long I detested that generation and sáid, * “This people are wayward in their hearts;
they do / not knów my ways.”
- 11 So I swore in my wráth, *
“They shall not enter / into my rest.” [Ant.]

- 4 For great is the LORD and greatly to be práised; *
he is more to be féared than áll gods.

- 5 As for all the gods of the nations, they are but ídols; *
but it is the LORD who máde the héavens.
- 6 Oh, the majesty and magnificence of his présence! *
Oh, the power and the splendor of his sánctuáry!
- 7 Ascribe to the LORD, you families of the péoples; *
ascribe to the LORD hónor and pówer.
- 8 Ascribe to the LORD the honor due his Náme; *
bring offerings and cóme intó his courts.
- 9 Worship the LORD in the beauty of hóliness; *
let the whole earth trémble befóre him.
- 10 Tell it out among the nations: "The LÓRD is King! *
he has made the world so firm that it cannot be moved;
he will judge the péoples with équity."
- 11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
let the sea thunder and all that is ín it; *
let the field be joyful and áll that ís therein.
- 12 Then shall all the trees of the wood shout for joy

oh, whén will you cóme to me? *
I will walk with sincerity of / heart withín my höuse.
- 3 I will set no worthless thing befóre my eyes; *
I hate the doers of evil deeds;
they shall / not remáin with më.
- 4 A crooked heart sháll be fár from me; *
I / will not knöw evil.
- 5 Those who in secret slander their neighbors Í will déstroy; *
those who have a haughty look and a proud heart / I cannöt abide.
- 6 My eyes are upon the faithful in the land, that théy may dwéll with me, *
and only those who lead a blameless life shall / be my sérvänts.
- 7 Those who act deceitfully shall not dwéll in mý house, *
and those who tell lies shall not con/tinue ín my sight.
- 8 I will soon destroy all the wícked ín the land, * that I may root out all evildoers from the / city'öf the LÖRD. [Ant.]

Domine, exaudi

Tone VI

- 1 LORD, hëar my prayer, and let my cry come / befóre you; *
hide not your face from me in the day / of mý tróuble.
- 2 Incline / your éar to me; *
when I call, make / haste tō ánsver me,
- 3 For my days drift / awáy like smoke, *
and my bones are / hot äs búrning coals.
- 4 My heart is smitten like grass / and wíthered, *
so that I for/get tō éat my bread.
- 5 Because of the voice of / my gróaning *
I / am бүт śkin and bones.
- 6 I have become like a vulture in / the wílderness, *
like an owl a/mong thë rúins.

- 7 I lie / awáke and groan; *
I am like a sparrow, lonely / on ä hóuse-top.
- 8 My enemies revile / me áll day long, *
and those who scoff at me have taken an / oath ägáinst me.
- 9 For I have eaten ash/es fór bread *
and mingled my / drink with wéeping.
- 10 Because of your indigna/tion ánd wrath *
you have lifted me up / and thröwn mé away.
- 11 My days pass away like / ■ shádw, *
and I / withër like the grass.
- 12 But you, O LORD, endure / for éver, *
and your / Name fröm áge to age.
- 13 You will arise and have compassion on Zion,
for it is time to have mercy / upón her; *
indeed, the ap/pointèd tíme has come.
- 14 For your servants love her ver/y rúbble, *
and are moved to pity / evèn fór her dust.
- 15 The nations shall fear / your Náme, O LORD, *
and all the kings of the / earth yöur glóry.
- 16 For the LORD will build / up Zion, *
and his glo/ry will áppear.
- 17 He will look with favor on the prayer of / the hómeless; *
he will / not dëspíse their plea.
- 18 Let this be written for a future ge/nerátion, *
so that a people yet un/born mãy práise the LORD.
- 19 For the LORD looked down from his ho/ly pláce on high; *
from the heavens / he bēhēld the earth;
- 20 That he might hear the groan of / the cáptive *
and set free / those cōndémned to die;
- 21 That they may declare in Zion the Name / of thé LORD, *
and his praise / in Jërúsalem;

- 22 When the peoples are gathered / to'ge'ther, *
and the kingdoms al/so, tö sé'rve the LORD.
- 23 He has brought down my strength / be'fore my time; *
he has shortened the num/ber öf my' days;
- 24 And I said, "O my God,
do not take me away in the midst / of my' days; *
your years endure throughout all / gen'ëra'tions.
- 25 In the beginning, O LORD, you laid the founda/tions öf the earth, *
and the heavens are the / work öf yóur hands;
- 26 They shall perish, but you will endure;
they all shall wear out like / a gárment; *
as clothing you will change them,
and / they sháll bé changed;
- 27 But you are / alwáys the same, *
and your / years wíll néver end.
- 28 The children of your servants shall / contíneue, *
and their offspring shall / stand fäst ín your sight." [Ant.]

- 4 He redeems your life from the gráve *
and crowns you with mercy and / loving-kindness;
- 5 He satisfies you with góod things, *
and your youth is renewed / like an éagle's.

- 6 The LORD executes righteousness *
and judgment for / all who are oppressed.
- 7 He made his ways known to Moses *
and his works to the chil/dren of Israel.
- 8 The LORD is full of compassion and mercy, *
slow to anger and / of great kindness.
- 9 He will not always accuse us, *
nor will he keep his an/ger for ever.
- 10 He has not dealt with us according to our sins, *
nor rewarded us according / to our wickedness.
- 11 For as the heavens are high above the earth, *
so is his mercy great upon / those who fear him.
- 12 As far as the east is from the west, *
so far has he re/moved our sins from us.
- 13 As a father cares for his children, *
so does the LORD care for / those who fear him.
- 14 For he himself knows whereof we are made; *
he remembers / that we are but dust.
- 15 Our days are like the grass; *
we flourish like a / flower of the field;
- 16 When the wind goes over it, it is gone, *
and its place shall / know it no more.
- 17 But the merciful goodness of the LORD endures for ever on those who fear him, *
and his righteousness on / children's children;
- 18 On those who keep his covenant *
and remember his command/ments and do them.

- 19 The LORD has set his throne in héaven, *
and his kingship has do/minion óver all.
- 20 Bless the LORD, you angels of his,

O LORD my God, how excellent is your greatness!
you are clothed with majes/ty and spléndor.
- 2 You wrap yourself with light as wíth a cloak *
and spread out the heavens / like a cúrtain.
- 3 You lay the beams of your chambers in the waters abóve; *
you make the clouds your chariot;
you ride on the / wings of thé wind.
- 4 You make the winds your méssengers *
and flames of / fire your sérvants.
- 5 You have set the earth upon its foundátions, *
so that it never shall / move at ány time.
- 6 You covered it with the Deep as with a mántle; *
the waters stood higher / than the móuntains.
- 7 At your rebúke they fled; *
at the voice of your thunder they / hastened áway.
- 8 They went up into the hills and down to the valleys benéath, *
to the places you had ap/pointed fór them.
- 9 You set the limits that they shóuld not pass; *
they shall not again / cover thé earth.
- 10 You send the springs into the válleys; *
they flow be/tween the móuntains.
- 11 All the beasts of the field drink their fíll from them, *
and the wild / asses quénch their thirst.
- 12 Beside them the birds of the air máke their nests *
and sing a/mong the bráanches.
- 13 You water the mountains from your dwelling on hígh; *

- 1 Give thanks to the LORD and call upón his Name; *
make known his deeds among the peoples.
- 2 Sing to him, sing praises to him, *
and speak of all his marvelous works.
- 3 Glory in his holy Name; *
let the hearts of those who seek the LÓRD rejoice.
- 4 Search for the LÓRD and his strength; *
continually seek his face.
- 5 Remember the marvels he has done, *
his wonders and the judgments of his mouth,
- 6 O offspring of Ábraham his servant, *
O children of Jácob his chosen.

- 7 He ís the LÓRD our God; *
his judgments preváil in áll the world.
- 8 He has always been mindful óf his cóvenant, *
the promise he made for a thousand génerátions:
- 9 The covenant he máde with Ábraham, *
the oath that he swóre to Ísaac,
- 10 Which he established as a státute for Jácob, *
an everlasting covenánt for Ísrael,
- 11 Saying, "To you will I give the lánd of Cánaan *
to be your allótted inhéritance."
- 12 When they were féw in númer, *
of little account, and sójourners ín the land,
- 13 Wandering from nátion to nátion *
and from one kingdom tó anóther,
- 14 He let nó one oppréss them *
and rebuked kíngs for théir sake,
- 15 Saying, "Do not tóuch my anóinted *
and do my próphets nó harm."
- 16 Then he called for a fámine ín the land *
and destróyed the supplý of bread.
- 17 He sent a mán befóre them, *
Joseph, who was sóld as á slave.
- 18 They bruised his féet in fétters; *

- 27 They worked / his signs amóng them, *
and portents in / the *lá*nd of Hām.
- 28 He sent / darkness, and it gréw dark; *
but the Egyptians rebelled / agáinst his wórd.

- 29 He turned / their waters into blood *
and caused / their fish to die.
- 30 Their land / was overrun by frogs, *
in the very chambers of their kings.
- 31 He spoke, and there / came swarms of insects *
and gnats within all / their borders.
- 32 He gave them / hailstones instead of rain, *
and flames of fire through/out their land.
- 33 He blasted their / vines and their fig trees *
and shattered every tree in / their country.
- 34 He / spoke, and the locust came, *
and young locusts with/out number,
- 35 Which ate up all the / green plants in their land *
and devoured the fruit / of their soil.
- 36 He struck down / the firstborn of their land, *
the firstfruits of / all their strength.
- 37 He led out his people / with silver and gold; *
in all their tribes there was not one / that stumbled.
- 38 Egypt was / glad of their going, *

*1 Hallelujah!

Give thanks to the LORD, for hé is good, *
for his mercy en/dures for éver.

Hallelujah* may be omitted from the first verse of the psalm when the antiphon ends with hallelujah; the verse then begins: Give thanks to the LORD...

- 2 Who can declare the mighty acts of the LÓRD *
or / show forth áll his praise?
- 3 Happy are those who act with jústice *
and al/ways do w'hát is right!
- 4 Remember me, O LORD, with the favor you have for your péople, *
and visit me / with your sáving help;
- 5 That I may see the prosperity of your elect
and be glad with the gladness of your péople, *
that I may glory with / your inhéritance.
- 6 We have sinned as our f'orebears did; *
we have done wrong / and dealt w'ickedly.
- 7 In Egypt they did not consider your marvelous works,
nor remember the abundance of y'our love; *
they defied the Most High / at the Réd Sea.
- 8 But he saved them for his Náme's sake, *
to / make his p'ower known.
- 9 He rebuked the Red Sea, and it d'ried up, *
and he led them through the deep as / through a désert.
- 10 He saved them from the hand of those who h'ated them *
and redeemed them from the hand / of the ényemy.
- 11 The waters covered their oppréssors; *
not / one of thém was left.
- 12 Then they believed his w'ords *

Psalm 106 Part 2

Et fecerunt vitulum

Tone IV.2

19 Isräel made a bull-/calf at Hóreb *
and worshiped / a molten ímage;

20 And so they ex/changed their Glóry *
for the image of an / ox that feeds ón grass.

- 21 They forgot / God their Sávi^or, *
 who had done / great things in Égypt,
- 22 Wonderful deeds / in the lá^ond of Ham, *
 and fearful / things at the Ré^od Sea.
- 23 So he would have destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stood be/fore him ín the breach, *
 to turn away his / wrath from consú^oming them.
- 24 They re/fused the pleá^osant land *
 and would not / believe his próm^oise.
- 25 They / grumbled ín their tents *
 and would not listen to / the voice of thé LORD.
- 26 So he lifted his / hand agá^oinst them, *
 to overthrow / them in the wí^olderness,
- 27 To cast out their seed a/mong the ná^otions, *
 and to scat/ter them throug^ohout the lands.
- 28 They joined them/selves to Bá^oal-Peor *
 and ate sacrifices / offered to thé dead.
- 29 They provoked him to anger / with their á^octions, *
 and a plague / broke out amó^ong them.
- 30 Then Phinehas stood up and / intercéd^oed, *
 and the / plague came to án end.
- 31 This was reckoned to / him as rí^oghteousness *
 throughout all gene/rations for é^over.
- 32 Again they provoked his anger at the wa/ters of Mé^oribah, *
 so that he punished / Moses becaú^ose of them;
- 33 For they so embit/tered his spí^orit *
 that he / spoke rash words wí^oth his lips.
- 34 They did not des/troy the pé^ooples *
 as the / LORD had commá^onded them.
- 35 They intermingled / with the hé^oathen *
 — / and learned their pá^ogan ways,

- 36 So that they wor/shiped their ídols, *
which / became a snáre to them.
- 37 They / sacrificéd their sons *
and their daughters / to evil spírits.
- 38 They shed innocent blood,
the blood of their / sons and dáughters, *
which they offered to the idols of Canaan,
and the / land was defíled with blood.
- 39 Thus they were polluted / by their áctions *
and went whor/ing in their évil deeds.
- 40 Therefore the wrath of the LORD was kindled a/gainst his péople *
and he ab/horred his inhéritance.
- 41 He gave them over to the hand / of the heathen, *
and those who hat/ed them ruled óver them.
- 42 Their ene/mies oppréssed them, *
and they were hum/bled under théir hand.
- 43 Many a time did he deliver them,
but they rebelled through their / own dévices, *
and were brought down / in their iníquity.
- 44 Nevertheless, / he saw théir distress, *
when he heard / their lamentátion.
- 45 He remembered his cov/enant wíth them *
and relented in accordance / with his great mércy.
- 46 He caused them / to be pítiert *
by those / who held them cáptive.
- 47 Save us, O LORD our God,

/and glory ín your praise.

48 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,

Psalm 107 Part 1 Confitemini Domino Tone V.1

- 1 Give thanks to the LORD, for hé is good, *
 and his mercy endúres for éver.
- 2 Let all those whom the LORD has redéemed proclaim * that he redeemed them from the hánd of thé foe.
- 3 He gathered them out of the lánds; *
 from the east and from the west,
 from the nóth and fróm the south.
- 4 Some wandered in désert wastes; *
 they found no way to a city where théy might dwell.

- 5 They were hungry and thirsty; *
their spirits languished within them.
- 6 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, *
and he delivered them from their distress.
- 7 He put their feet on a straight path *
to go to a city where they might dwell.
- 8 Let them give thanks to the LORD for his mercy *
and the wonders he does for his children.
- 9 For he satisfies the thirsty *
and fills the hungry with good things.
- 10 Some sat in darkness and deep gloom, *
bound fast in misery and iron;
- 11 Because they rebelled against the words of God *
and despised the counsel of the Most High.
- 12 So he humbled their spirits with hard labor; *
they stumbled, and there was none to help.
- 13 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, *
and he delivered them from their distress.
- 14 He led them out of darkness and deep gloom *
and broke their bonds asunder.
- 15 Let them give thanks to the LORD for his mercy *
and the wonders he does for his children.
- 16 For he shatters the doors of bronze *
and breaks in two the iron bars.
- 17 Some were fools and took to rebellious ways; *
they were afflicted because of their sins.
- 18 They abhorred all manner of food *
and drew near to death's door.

- 19 Then they cried to the LORD in their tróuble, *
and he delivered thém from thér distress.
- 20 He sent forth his word and héaled them *
and sáved them fróm the grave.
- 21 Let them give thanks to the LORD for his mércy *
and the wonders he dóes for his children.
- 22 Let them offer a sacrifice of thanksgíving *
and tell of his ácts with shóuts of joy.
- 23 Some went down to the sea in ships *
and plied their tráde in deep wátters;
- 24 They beheld the works of the LÓRD *
and his wónders ín the deep.
- 25 Then he spoke, and a stormy wínd arose, *
which tossed high the wáves of thé sea.
- 26 They mounted up to the heavens and fell back to the dépths; *
their hearts melted becaúse of their péril.
- 27 They reeled and staggered like drúnkards *
and wére at their wíts' end.
- 28 Then they cried to the LORD in their tróuble, *
and he delivered thém from thér distress.
- 29 He stilled the storm to a wíisper *
and quieted the wáves of thé sea.
- 30 Then were they glad because of the cálm, *
and he brought them to the harbor théy were bóund for.
- 31 Let them give thanks to the LORD for his mércy *

- 2 Wake up, my spirit;
awake, lúte and harp; *
I myself will / waken thé dawn.
- 3 I will confess you among the peoples, O LÓRD; *
I will sing praises to you a/mong the nátions.

- 4 For your loving-kindness is greater than the héavens, *
and your faithfulness / reaches tó the clouds.
- 5 Exalt yourself above the heavens, O Gód, *
and your glory / over áll the earth.
- 6 So that those who are dear to you may be delívered, *
save with your right / hand and ánsver me.
- 7 God spoke from his holy pláce and said, *
“I will exult and parcel out Shechem;
I will divide the val/ley of Súccoth.
- 8 Gilead is mine and Manasseh is míne; *
Ephraim is my helmet and Ju/dah my scépter.
- 9 Moab is my washbasin,
on Edom I throw down my sandal to cláim it, *
and over Philistia will I / shout in tríumph.”
- 10 Who will lead me into the strong cíty? *
who will bring me / into Édom?
- 11 Have you not cast us off, O Gód? *
you no longer go out, O God, / with our ármies.
- 12 Grant us your help against the énemy, *
for vain / is the hélp of man.
- 13 With God we will do váliant deeds, *
and he shall tread our e/nemies únder foot. [Ant.]

Antiphon

For your ten - der mer - cy's sake, de - liv - er me, O LORD.

Psalm 109

Deus, lauden

Tone II.1

- 1 Hold not your tongue, O God of my práise; *
for the mouth of the wicked,
the mouth of the deceitful, is opened / agáinst me.
- 2 They speak to me with a lýing tongue; *
they encompass me with hateful words
and fight against me / withóut a cause.
- 3 Despite my love, they accúse me; *
but as for me, / I práy for them.
- 4 They repay evil for góod, *
and ha/tred fór my love.
- 5 Set a wicked man agáinst him, *
and let an accuser stand / at hís right hand.
- 6 When he is judged, let him be found gúilty, *
and let his appeal / be ín vain.
- 7 Let his dáys be few, *
and let another take / his óffice.
- 8 Let his children be fátherless, *
and his wife become / a wídw.
- 9 Let his children be waifs and béggars; *
let them be driven from the ru/ins óf their homes.
- 10 Let the creditor seize everything hé has; *
let strangers plun/der his gains.

- 11 Let there be no one to show him ^{kindness}, *
and none to pity his father/less ^{children}.
- 12 Let his descendants ^{bé} destroyed, *
and his name be blotted out in the next ge/nerátion.
- 13 Let the wickedness of his fathers be remembered ^{before} the LORD, *
and his mother's sin not / be blótted out;
- 14 Let their sin be always ^{before} the LORD; *
but let him root out their names / from ^{the} earth;
- 15 Because he did not remember to show ^{mercy}, *
but persecuted the poor and needy
and sought to kill the bro/kenhéarted.
- 16 He loved cursing,
let it come upón him; *
he took no delight in blessing,
let it / depárt from him.
- 17 He put on cursing like a ^{garment}, *
let it soak into his body like water
and into / his bónes like oil;
- 18 Let it be to him like the cloak which he wraps ^{around} himself, *
and like the belt that he wears / ^{continually}.
- 19 Let this be the recompense from the LORD to my ^{accú}sers, *
and to those who speak evil / ^{against} me.
- 20 But you, O Lord my GOD,
oh, deal with me according to your ^{Ná}me; *
for your tender mercy's sake, / ^{delí}ver me.
- 21 For I am poor and ^{né}edy, *
and my heart is wounded / ^{withín} me.
- 22 I have faded away like a shadow when it ^{lén}gthens; *
I am shaken off like / a ^{lóc}ust.

- 23 My knees are weak through fásting,*
and my flesh is was/ted ánd gaunt.
- 24 I have become a repróach to them; *
they see / and sháke their heads.
- 25 Help me, O LÓRD my God; *
save me for / your mércy's sake.
- 26 Let them know that this is yóur hand, *
that you, O LORD, / have dóne it.
- 27 They may curse, but yóu will bless; *
let those who rise up against me be put to shame,
and your ser/vant wíll rejoice.
- 28 Let my accusers be clothed with disgráce *
and wrap themselves in their shame / as ín a cloak.
- 29 I will give great thanks to the LORD wíth my mouth; *
in the midst of the multitude will / I práise him;
- 30 Because he stands at the right hand of the néedy, * to save his life from those who would / condémn him. [Ant.]

On other Sundays and Weekdays

I will lift up the cup of sal - va - tion, and call up - on the Name of the LORD, hal - le - lu - jah.

- 1 I love the LORD, because he has heard the voice of my supplicá'tion, * because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I / called upón him.
- 2 The cords of death entangled me;
the grip of the grave took hól'd of me; *
I came to / grief and sórrow.
- 3 Then I called upon the Name of the LÓRD: *
"O LORD, I / pray you, sáve my life."
- 4 Gracious is the LORD and ríghteous; *
our God is full / of compá'ssion.
- 5 The LORD watches over the ínno'cent; *
I was brought very low, / and he hélp'ed me.
- 6 Turn again to your rest, Ó my soul, *
for the LORD has / treated yóu well.
- 7 For you have rescued my lífe from death, *
my eyes from tears, and my / feet from stúmbling.
- 8 I will walk in the presence of the LÓRD *
in the land / of the líving.
- 9 I believed, even when I said,
"I have been brought véry low." *
In my distress I said, "No one / can be trústed."
- 10 How shall I repay the LÓRD *
for all the good things / he has dóne for me?
- 11 I will lift up the cup of salvá'tion *
and call upon the / Name of thé LORD.
- 12 I will fulfill my vows to the LÓRD *
in the presence of / all his péople.
- 13 Precious in the sight of the LÓRD *
is the death / of his sérvants.

- 14 O LORD, I am your sérvant; *
I am your servant and the child of your handmaid;
you have / freed me fróm my bonds.
- 15 I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgíving *
and call upon the / Name of thé LORD.
- 16 I will fulfill my vows to the LÓRD *

- 1 Happÿ are they áll who fear thë LORD, *
and who follow / in his wäys!
- 2 You shall eat the frúit of your läbor; *
happiness and prosperity / shall bé yöurs.
- 3 Your wife shall be like a fruitful vîne within ýöur house, *
your children like olive shoots round about / your táblë.
- 4 The mán who féars thë LORD *
shall thus in/deed bé blëssed.
- 5 The LORD blëss you from Zíon, *
and may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days / of yóur life.
- 6 May you live to see your children's children; *
may peace be up/on Ísraël. [Ant.]

Psalm 129

Saepe expugnaverunt

Tone II.1

- 1 "Greatly have they oppressed me 'since my youth," *
let Isra/el nów say;
- 2 "Greatly have they oppressed me 'since my youth, *
but they have not prevailed / agáinst me."
- 3 The plowmen plowed upón my back *
and made / their fúrrows long.
- 4 The LORD, the Ríghteous One, *
has cut the cords of / the wícked.
- 5 Let them be put to shame and thrówn back, *
all those who are enemies / of Zíon.
- 6 Let them be like grass upon the hóusetops, *
which withers before it / can bé plucked;
- 7 Which does not fill the hand of the réaper, *
nor the bosom of him / who bínds the sheaves;
- 8 So that those who go by say not as much as,
"The LORD prósper you. *
We wish you well in the Name / of thé LORD." [Ant.]

Antiphon

Psalm 130

De profundis

Tone III.5

- 1 Out öf the depths have I called to you, O LORD;
LÓRD, hear mý voice; *
let your ears consider well the voice of my sup/plicátion.
- 2 If you, LORD, were to nóte what is dóne ämiss, *
O Lord, / who cóuld ständ?
- 3 For there is forgíveness wíth you; *
therefore you / shall bé féared.
- 4 I wait for the LORD; my sóul waits för him; *
in his word / is mý höpe.
- 5 My soul waits for the LORD,
more than wáitchmen for thé mörning, *
more than watchmen for / the mórning.
- 6 O Israel, wáit for thë LORD, *
for with the LORD there / is mércý;
- 7 With him there is plénteous redëmption, *
and he shall redeem Israel / from áll their sins. [Ant.]

Antiphon

Psalm 131*Domine, non estTone IV.6*

- 1 O LÖRD, I / am not próud; *
I have no háughty looks.
- 2 I do not occupy myself / with great mátters, *
or with things that are too hárd for me.
- 3 But I still my soul and make it quiet,
like a child up/on its móther's breast; *
my soul is quieted within me.
- 4 O Israel, / wait upón the LORD, *
from this time forth for évermore. [Ant.]

Psalm 132

Memento, Domine

Tone I.7

- 1 LORD, rĕ—mémber Dávid, *
and all the / hardships hĕ endüred;
- 2 How he swore an óath to thĕ LORD *
and vowed a vow to the Mighty / One of Jäcöb:
- 3 “I will not come under the róof of mý house, *
nor climb up / into mý bĕd;
- 4 I will not allów my éyes to sleep, *
nor let my / eyelids slǔmbĕr;
- 5 Until I find a pláce for thĕ LORD, *
a dwelling for the Mighty / One of Jäcöb.”
- 6 “The ark! We heard it wás in Éphratah; *
we found it in the / fields of Jĕariim.
- 7 Let us gó to God’s dwĕlling place; *
let us fall upon our knees be/fore his fóotstööl.”
- 8 Arise, O LORD, into your résting-place, *
you and the / ark of ýöur strĕngth.
- 9 Let your priests be clóthed with ríghteousness; *
let your faithful / people síng with jöy.

- 10 For your s[́]ervant D[́]avid's sake, *
do not turn away the face of / your A[́]n[́]ointed.
- 11 The LORD has sworn an [́]oath to D[́]avid; *
in truth, he / will not br[́]ea[́]k it.
- 12 "A son, the fruit of your b[́]ody *
will I / set up[́]on your thr[́]one.
- 13 If your children keep my covenant
and my testimonies that [́]I shall t[́]ea[́]ch them, * their children will sit upon your / throne for [́]e[́]verm[́]ore."
- 14 For the LORD has ch[́]osen [́]Zion; *
he has desired her for his / hab[́]itat[́]ion:
- 15 "This shall be my resting-pl[́]ace for [́]e[́]ver; *
here will I dwell, for / I del[́]ight in h[́]er.
- 16 I will surely bl[́]ess her prov[́]isions, *
and satis/fy her p[́]oor with br[́]ead.
- 17 I will clothe her pri[́]ests with salv[́]ation, *
and her faithful people / will re[́]j[́]oice and s[́]ing.
- 18 There will I make the horn of D[́]avid fl[́]ourish; *
I have prepared a lamp for / my A[́]n[́]ointed.
- 19 As for his enemies, I will cl[́]othe them [́]with shame; *
but as for / him, his cr[́]own will sh[́]ine." [Ant.]

Psalm 134 Ecce nunc

Tone I.1

- 1 Behöld now, bless the LORD, all you sérvants óf the LORD, *
you that stand by night in the / house of thĕ LORD.
- 2 Lift up your hands in the holy pláce and blĕss the LORD; *
the LORD who made heaven and earth bless you / out of Žion. [Ant.]

Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good; sing prais - es to his Name for

Tone 1.1

Praise the N'ame of th' LORD; *

give praise, you / servants 'öf the LORD,

2 You who stand in the hóuse of thé LORD, *
in the courts of the / house of óur God.

3 Praise the LORD, f'or the L'ORD is good; *
sing praises to his Name, for / it is l'ovely.

4 For the LORD has chosen Jácob f'or himself *
and Israel for his / own posséssion.

5 For I know that the LORD is great, *
and that our Lord / is above all gods.

6 The LORD does whatever pleases him, in héaven and ón earth,*
in the / seas and 'all the deeps.

Hallelujah* may be omitted from the first verse of the psalm when the antiphon ends with Hallelujah; the verse then begins: Praise the—Name of the LORD; *

- 7 He brings up rain clouds from the énds of thé earth; *
he sends out lightning with the rain,
and brings the winds out / of his s'torehouse.
- 8 It was he who struck down the fírstborn of Égypt, *
the firstborn / both of mán and beast.
- 9 He sent signs and wonders into the midst of yóu, O Égypt, *
against Pharaoh and / all his s'ervants.
- 10 He overthréw many nátions *
and put / mighty k'ings to death:
- 11 Sihon, king of the Amorites,
and Og, the k'ing of Báshan, *
and all the king/doms of Cánaan.
- 12 He gave their land to bé an inhéritance, *
an inheritance for Isra/el his p'ëople.
- 13 O LORD, your Name is éverlásting; *
your renown, O LORD, en/dures from áge to age.
- 14 For the LORD gives his p'ëople jústice *
and shows compassion / to his s'ervants.
- 15 The idols of the heathen are sílver ánd gold, *
the / work of húman hands.
- 16 They have móuths, but they cánnot speak; *
eyes have they, / but they cánnot see.
- 17 They have éars, but they cánnot hear; *
neither is there any / breath in th'eir mouth.
- 18 Those who máke them are líke them, *
and so are all who / put their trúst in them.
- 19 Bless the LORD, O hóuse of Ísrael; *
O house of / Aaron, bléss the LORD.
- 20 Bless the LORD, O hóuse of Lévi; *
you who fear / the LORD, bléss the LORD.
- 21 Blessed be the LÓRD out of Z'ion, *
who dwells in Jerusalem.
/Hallelújah! [Ant.]

- 1 By thè waters of Babylon wé sat dówn and wept, *
when we remembered / you, O Žion.
- 2 As for our hárps, we húng them up *
on the trees in the / midst of thát land.
- 3 For those who led us away captive asked us for a song,
and our oppréssors cálléd for mirth: *
“Sing us one of the / songs of Žion.”
- 4 How shall we śing the LÓRD’s song *
up/on an ‘alien soil?
- 5 If I forget yóu, O Jerúsalem, *
let my right / hand forġèt its skill.
- 6 Let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth
if I do nóť remémber you, *
if I do not set Jerusalem a/bove my ĥighest joy.
- 7 Remember the day of Jerusalem, O LORD,
against the péople of Édom, *
who said, “Down with it! down with it!
/even tō the ground!”
- 8 O Daughter of Babylon, dóomed to destrúction, *
happy the one who pays you back
for what / you have dōne to us!
- 9 Happy shall he be who tákes your líttle ones, *
and dashes / them agáinst the rock! [Ant.]

In Advent

In Easter Season

Though I walk in the midst of trou - ble, you keep me safe,

hal - le - lu - jah.

On other Sundays and Weekdays

I will bow down toward your ho - ly tem - ple, and praise your Name, O LORD.

- 1 I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with my whóle heart; *
before the gods Í will síng your praise.
- 2 I will bow down toward your holy temple
and práise your Name, *
because of your love and fáithfulness;
- 3 For you have glorified your Náme *
and your wórd abóve all things.
- 4 When I called, you ánspered me; *
you increased my stréngth withín me.
- 5 All the kings of the earth will praise yóu, O LORD, *
when they have heard the wórds of yóur mouth.
- 6 They will sing of the ways of the LÓRD, *
that great is the glóry óf the LORD.
- 7 Though the LORD be high, he cares for the lówly; *
he perceives the háughty fróm afar.
- 8 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you kéeep me safe; *
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your ríght hand shall sáve me.
- 9 The LORD will make good his purpose for mé; *
O LORD, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the wórks of yóur hands. [Ant.]

- 2 You trace my journeys and my résting-plāces *
and are acquainted / with āll my wāys.
- 3 Indeed, there is not a wōrd on mÿ lips, *
but you, O LORD, know it al/togéthēr.
- 4 You press upon me behínd and bēfore *
and lay your hand / upón mē.
- 5 Such knowledge is too wōnderful fōr me; *
it is so high that I cannot / attāin to it.
- 6 Where can I gó then from your Spírit? *
where can I flee from / your présēnce?
- 7 If I climb up to héaven, you āre there; *
if I make the grave my bed, you / are thére alsö.
- 8 If I take the wíngs of the mōrning *
and dwell in the uttermost parts / of thé sēa,
- 9 Even there your hánd will léad me *
and your right hand / hold mé fāst.
- 10 If I say, "Surely the dārkness will cōvēr me, *
and the light around me / turn to nīght,"
- 11 Darkness is not dark to you;
the night is as bríght as thé day; *
darkness and light to you / are bóth alike.
- 12 For you yourself created my ínmost parts; *
you knit me together in / my móther's wōmb.
- 13 I will thank you because I am mārvelously made; *
your works are wonderful, and / I knów it wēll.

Antiphon

Psalm 140

Eripe me, Domine

Tone III.5

- 1 Deliver me, O LORD, from évildöers; *
protect me from / the víolënt.
- 2 Who devise évil in thëir hearts *
and stir up strife / all dáy löng.
- 3 They have sharpened their tóngues like a sérpent; *
adder's poison is un/der thëir lips.
- 4 Keep me, O LORD, from the hánds of the wícked; *
protect me from the violent,
who are determined / to tríp me üp.
- 5 The proud have hidden a snare for me
and strétched out a nét öf cords; *
they have set traps for me / alóng the päth.
- 6 I have said to the LORD, "Yóu are mÿ God; *
listen, O LORD, to my sup/plicátion.
- 7 O Lord GOD, the strength of mÿ salvátion, *
you have covered my head in the day / of báttlë.
- 8 Do not grant the desires of the wícked, Ö LORD, *
nor let their evil / plans próspër.

- 9 Let not those who surround me lift up their heads; *
let the evil of their lips overwhelm them.
- 10 Let hot burning coals fall upon them; *
let them be cast into the mire, never to / rise up again."
- 11 A slanderer shall not be established on the earth, *
and evil shall hunt down / the lawless.
- 12 I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the poor * and render justice to / the needy.
- 13 Surely, the righteous will give thanks to your Name, *
and the upright shall continue / in your sight. [Ant.]

Psalm 141

Domine, clamavi

Tone VIII.1

- 1 O LORD, I call to you; come to me quickly; *
hear my voice / when I cry to you.
- 2 Let my prayer be set forth in your sight as incense, *
the lifting up of my hands as the / evening sacrifice.

- 3 Set a watch before my mouth, O LORD,
and guard the door of my líps; *
let not my heart incline to / any évil thing.
- 4 Let me not be occupied in wickedness with evildóers, *
nor eat / of their chóice foods.
- 5 Let the righteous smite me in friendly rebuke;
let not the oil of the unrighteous anóint my head; *
for my prayer is continually a/gainst their wícked deeds.
- 6 Let their rulers be overthrown in stony pláces, *
that they may / know my wórds are true.
- 7 As when a plowman turns over the earth in fúrrows, *
let their bones be scattered at the / mouth of thé grave.
- 8 But my eyes are turned to yóu, Lord GOD; *
in you I take refuge;
do not strip / me of mý life.
- 9 Protect me from the snare which they have láid for me *
and from the traps of the / evildóers.
- 10 Let the wicked fall into théir own nets, *

- 1 I cry to the LORD with my voice; *
to the LORD I make loud supplication.
- 2 I pour out my complaint before him *
and tell him all my trouble.
- 3 When my spirit languishes within me, you know my path; *
in the way wherein I walk they have hidden a trap for me.
- 4 I look to my right hand and find no one who knows me; *
I have no place to flee to, and no one cares for me.
- 5 I cry out to you, O LORD; *
I say, "You are my refuge,
my portion in the land of the living."
- 6 Listen to my cry for help, for I have been brought very low; *
save me from those who pursue me,
for they are too strong for me.

- 7 Bring me out of prison, that I may give thanks to yóur Name; *
when you have dealt bountifully with me,
the righteous will gáther aróund me. [Ant.]

- 11 They make known the glory of your kíngdom *
and speak / of your pówer;
- 12 That the peoples may know of your pówer *
and the glorious splendor / of your kíngdom.
- 13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kíngdom; *
your dominion endures through/out all áges.
- 14 The LORD is faithful in áll his words *
and merci/ful in áll his deeds.
- 15 The LORD upholds all thóse who fall; *
he lifts up those / who are bówed down.
- 16 The eyes of all wait upon yóu, O LORD, *
and you give them their food / in due séason.
- 17 You open wíde your hand *
and satisfy the needs of every / living créature.
- 18 The LORD is righteous in áll his ways *
and lov/ing in áll his works.
- 19 The LORD is near to those who call upón him, *
to all who call up/on him fáithfully.
- 20 He fulfills the desire of those who féar him; *
he hears their / cry and hélp[s] them.
- 21 The LORD preserves all those who lóve him, *
but he destroys / all the wícked.
- 22 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LÓRD; *
let all flesh bless his holy Name for ev/er and éver. [Ant.]

Psalm 146*Lauda, anima meaTone VII.1*1 Hállēlujah!

Praise the LÓRD, O mý soul! *

I will praise the LORD as long as I live;

I will sing praises to my God while Í have my béíng.

2 Put not your trust in rulers, nor in ány chıld of earth, *
for thére is no hēlp in thēm.

3 When they breathe their last, théy retúrñ to earth, *
and in that dáy their thoughts pérish.

Hallelujah* may be omitted from the first verse of the psalm when the antiphon ends with Hallelujah; the verse then begins: Praise the—LÓRD, O mý soul! *

- 4 Happy are they who have the God of Jácob f'or their help! *
whose hope is ín the LÓRD their G'od;
- 5 Who made heaven and earth, the seas, and áll that is ín them; *
who keeps his pr'omise for évër;
- 6 Who gives justice to th'ose who áre oppressed, *
and food to th'ose who húng'ër.
- 7 The LORD sets the prisoners free;
the LORD opens the éyes of th'é blind; *
the LORD lifts up th'ose who are bówed d'own;
- 8 The LORD loves the righteous;
the LORD cáres for the stránger; *
he sustains the orphan and widow,
but frustrates the wáy of the wíck'ed.
- 9 The LORD shall réign for évër, *
your God, O Zion, throughout all generations.

Psalm 147

Laudate Dominum

Tone VIII.1

- 1 Hallelujah!
How good it is to sing praises to our Gód! *
how pleasant it is to / honor híim with praise!
- 2 The LORD rebuilds Jerúsalem; *
he gathers the ex/iles of Ísrael.
- 3 He heals the brokenhéarted *
and / binds up théir wounds.
- 4 He counts the number of the stárs *
and calls them / all by théir names.
- 5 Great is our LORD and mighty in pówer; *
there is no limit / to his wísdom.
- 6 The LORD lifts up the lówly, *
but casts the / wicked tó the ground.
- 7 Sing to the LORD with thánksgiving; *
make music to our / God upón the harp.
- 8 He covers the heavens with clóuds *
and prepares / rain for thé earth;
- 9 He makes grass to grow upon the móuntains *
and green / plants to sérve mankind.
- 10 He provides food for flócks and herds *
and for the young / ravens whén they cry.
- 11 He is not impressed by the might of a hórse; *
he has no pleasure in the / strength of á man;

- 12 But the LORD has pleasure in those who fear him, *
in those who await his / gracious favor.
- 13 Worship the LORD, O Jerúsalem; *
praise your / God, O Zíon;
- 14 For he has strengthened the bars of yóur gates; *
he has blessed your chil/dren within you.
- 15 He has established peace on your bórders; *
he satisfies you / with the finest wheat.
- 16 He sends out his command to the éarth, *
and his word runs / very swíftly.
- 17 He gives snów like wool; *
he scatters hoar/frost like áshes.
- 18 He scatters his hail like bréad crumbs; *
who can / stand agáinst his cold?
- 19 He sends forth his word and mélts them; *
he blows with his wind, / and the wáters flow.
- 20 He declares his word to Jácob, *
his statutes and his judg/ments to Ísrael.
- 21 He has not done so to any other nátion; *
to them he has not revealed his judgments.

The image displays six staves of musical notation, numbered 1 through 6. Each staff begins with a treble clef. The notation includes various musical symbols: notes (quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes), rests, and accidentals (sharps and flats). The notation is arranged in a way that suggests a sequence of exercises or variations. The first staff is the most complex, featuring a variety of note values and accidentals. The subsequent staves show simpler variations, often focusing on specific intervals or rhythmic patterns. The notation is presented in a clear, legible format, suitable for educational or instructional purposes.
